Annual Visit

Mr. and Mrs. George Vieira of Ceres, Calif., made their annual visit with the Les Henrys over Thanksgiving. While here they went to Klamath Falls and eastern Oregon.

Sunday in Roseburg

Bill and Betty Deal and their daughter Sandy, accompanied by Carl and Shirley Morgan and son Tommy, spent Sunday in Roseburg with Bill's parents.

Family for Thanksgiving

Another family got together for the Thanksgiving holiday when Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Cushing entertained his parents and two sisters for the holiday. The senior Cushings arrived Nov. 24 and spent the week with their son and his wife and the two grandchildren, Kelly and Kimberly.

Fast Holiday Trip

Glen and Dorene Perry made a fast trip to Portland to spend the holiday with Dorene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butts Sr., and other members of her family.

Stamperers Begin Winter Session

Valley residents are invited to attend the winter session of the Stamperers Square Dance club. These dances will be held each Wednesday evening and every other Saturday night starting Dec. 6 at 8 p.m. at the O'Brien Women's clubhouse, on the Redwood Highway, south of Cave Junction.

Home From College

Bud Proctor came home from Oregon State College to spend the Thanksgiving weekend with his parents the Raymond Proctors.

Travel To Depoe Bay

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wendt and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wendt of Grants Pass traveled to Depoe Bay for the holiday.

Guest of the Mulveys

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Mulvey and daughter Pat had as their guest for Thanksgiving Mr. M. F. Smith of Medford.

Travel to Stockton

Mike and Shirley Wells went to Stockton and San Francisco over the last weekend.

Dance, Movies Tonight in O'Brien

Mrs. Helen Bottel (Leave News at O'Brien Store)

O'BRIEN—Tonight, Friday, initiates Children's Night at O'Brien Grade School with eight short movie features to round out the two and a half hour program. Three cartoons, two comedies, two travelogues and one adventure film will make a full evening for O'Brien sprouts and any parents who wish to attend.

No admission charge is asked, according to John Grubb and Roy Kiser, managers of this special PTA event, but those who wish to contribute small amounts toward further movies will not be discouraged.

As the film night falls on the Shamrock Club square dance date, Chairman Bob Nunemaker announces that dancing will begin at 9:30, after the show.

A course in textile painting kept members of the O'Brien Home Economics unit busy and interested Wednesday, Nov. 26, at the home of Mrs. Melba McDonald. In spite of frozen pipes and no water, the group enjoyed a potluck luncheon, plus coffee, courtesy of one outside faucet which dripped a fine dribble.

Plans were made for those interested in cloth painting to meet after Christmas for further instruction.

The annual Christmas party for the unit will be held Dec. 17 at the Gordon Steven's home near Elk Creek (former Emerson house), at 1 p.m. Members are asked to bring exchange gifts costing not more than $1 for adults and $.35 for children, one for each person who comes.

Potluck dessert will be served during the afternoon, with everyone contributing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Prairie spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. Russell Doran in Eugene Ore.

Gale Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson of Elk-Creek, celebrated his sixth birthday last Friday with nine of his neighbors who played games, won prizes and dined on pop corn, ice cream, and cake. Making merry with him were Starla and Gregory Floyd, Susie Love, Loeta, Jack and Mary Jane Airing, and Roddy and Denny Bottel.

Melody Lane Playhouse, which featured billiards and other games of skill, closed last Friday until further notice. Paul Schneider, owner, is completing a rental apartment in the front of the building.

Mothers who came visiting for the Thanksgiving holidays were: Mrs. Bertha B. Morgan of Klamath Falls, whose daughter, Mrs. Marie Floyd, lives at Twin Pines. Her two grandchildren, Starla and Gregory, as well as Mrs. Floyd, are trying to keep her here 'til Christmas. And Charles Downing's mother from Idaho who spent the holidays with the family.

Vibert Kirk, owner of the Waldo Store, flew to Denver, Colo., Sunday Nov. 23 to be with his father who is hospitalized there for major surgery.

Mellows Together for Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mellow came up from Crescent City to spend Thanksgiving with the Mellow family, who enjoyed the day at the home of Al Mellows.

Piano Students Present Recital for Parents

Twenty five piano students of Mrs. Elsie M. Kroon presented a recital at her home on Thursday December 4 at 8 p.m. The parents of the students were the attending guests.

The beginners group consisted of: Wendell Seat, Helen Brockmiller, Judy Hatmaker, Walter Freeman, Linda Deaton, Alan Reinoehl, Dolores Reinoehl, Marie Appy, Carol Appy, Sharon Babcock, Loretta Mayfield, and Marilyn Mayfield. The second grade students are Jerrie Hager, Connie Hager, Janice Etherton, Alvin Kroon, Roberta Martin, Norma Martin, Paul Beard, Myrna Jensen and Mae Bowerman.

The advanced students rendered a variety of selections. Ronine Rausch played "Scarf Dance" by Chaminate and "Lingering Memories" by Eric R. Moss; Elaine Kroon, "Gavotte" by David Popper and "Air de Ballet" by N. Louise Wright; Mercedes Drown, "Simple Confession" by Francis Thome and "Valley of France" by Adele Gerard; Lylabelle Cross, "Valse" by F. Chopin and "Improvisation and Melody" by Arthur Brown.

Elaine and Alvin Kroon played a duet number, "Onward Christian Soldiers" by Sullivan.

A delightful reading, "The Littlest Angel" by Charles Tazewell, was given by Mrs. Henry Appy. Light refreshments were served.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many friends, for flowers, acts of kindness and words of sympathy when we brought our loved one home to the Valley he loved to be laid to rest. With special thanks to Rev. George Gray, to Phyllis Dick, to Mr. John Bedingfield and the members of the Church of Christ at Cave Junction, and to members of the Oddfellows Lodge of Kerby for their services.
