Tolins, Krausses Hold Reunion

by Mrs. Fritz Krauss
Ph. Selma 621

SELMA—A. N. (Abe) Tolin, of San Dimas, Calif., spent last week here visiting relatives for the first time in several years. Tuesday evening a family reunion was held at the Fritz Krauss home and those present included Mrs. Krauss' brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tolin of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. William Tolin and son Billy, Abe Tolin; their mother Mrs. Abbie Tolin of Grants Pass; the Krauss children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krauss, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hussey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Krauss and children and Kohath and Kenneth Krauss. Two of Mr. Tolin's friends, Dale Brennan and Ted Tafoya from San Dimas came with him.

Harold Taylor was guest speaker at the morning services at the Selma church Sunday. He is leaving soon to attend Southwestern Theological Seminary at Ft. Worth Tex. Recently the young people of the church gave him a farewell party. After the dinner of baked ham and all the trimmings, he was presented with a piece of luggage as a farewell gift. The group sang songs and had short talks. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Field, Mr. and Mrs. William Krauss, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith, Mrs. Jack Prentice, Don Warren, Kohath Krauss, Jim Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Breazeale, Virginia and Freddy Breazeale, Zada Smith, and Mary Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagerman and daughters of San Francisco visited last week with his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sandell.

Charles "Terry" Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Miller, who was stricken with polio at Kwajalen, and later flown to the Hawaiian Islands, died Nov. 26. His wife, the former Alene Brewer, and daughter Anita Rae was with him. Besides his parents and wife and daughter, he leaves a brother Gerald in the Navy, and two sisters, Mrs. Bud Mandie of Stockton and Mrs. M. C. Grey of Healdsburg, Calif. His two sisters and Mrs. Miller's sister Mrs. Frank Norman of Oakland, Calif., came up to be with the family. Funeral services will be held in Grants Pass with interment at Hillcrest. Terry had been in the Navy for 12 years. He graduated from Kerby Union High school.

Not too much damage has been reported from the recent storm. The sign at the Selma Cafe was blown down and some of the roofing was blown off the office at S.H. & W. Lumber Co. The Selma store roof was damaged and a tree blew over onto Pete Blue's garage. Selma was without power about 49 hours.

BAR ASSN. MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Cushing attended a meeting of the Southern Oregon Bar Assn. Friday at Ashland and attended the banquet following that evening at the Elk's club.
