36 Attend HEU Christmas Party

by Mrs. Fritz Krauss
Ph. Selma 621

SELMA—About 30 women and six children attended the Christmas party and regular meeting of the Deer Creek Extension unit last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fritz Krauss. The business meeting was held in the morning, a beautiful turkey dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was spent singing and opening gifts.

Mrs. Laveta Frowitt was a guest.

Mrs. A. R. Kothe decorated the table with "peanut pixies" climbing each candle with a match and another pixie in a reindeer-drawn sleigh with an extra supply of matches.

The next meeting, Jan. 8, will be at the home of Mrs. Ernest Krauss and the lesson will be "care of walls and flowers."

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stiro have returned home from a trip that took the into Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and Wyoming where they visited relatives. They were gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conger are going to spend the holidays with relatives in Inglewood, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith are returning to Vermont, Ill., to visit their parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Simington and children Merrill and Pat plan to spend the holidays with relatives and friends in Van Nuys, and San Diego, Calif.

Other holiday travelers are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spalding and son Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Colee and children Bob and Bonnie who are going to Los Angeles. Mrs. Spalding and Douglas have already left and Mr. Spalding will go down with the Colees.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stengel will be in Woodland Hills, Calif., for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Short who purchased the Steinke place several months ago are visiting in Athamora, Calif. The Shorts own the property adjoining the Steinke place also.

Victor Teska who owns the former Paquette place is visiting in Pomona, Calif.

The Roy Parkers and the Bud Merrows have moved to Garberville, Calif.

Word has been received that the body of Terry Miller will arrive the last of this week and funeral services will be held Monday or Tuesday in Grants Pass. He died in a naval hospital in Hawaii, before Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Seifert have returned from a trip back to Rolph, Iowa, where they visited their mothers. The two mothers live together.

REBEKAHS NEXT MEETING FALLS IN JANUARY

Because the next scheduled regular meeting date falls on Christmas eve, Marguerite Rebekah Lodge will not meet until Jan. 14, it was announced at the Dec. 10 meeting.

Secret pals were revealed at the meeting and a potluck lunch served. Noble Grand-elect Twyle Salvage performed her secret work in open lodge.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS SERVICE THIS SUNDAY AT CHURCH

The Cave Junction Community church is combining its morning service and the Christmas program this Sunday, Dec. 21, at 9:45. Rev. Paul Kroon will conclude the services with a Christmas message.

Each class in the Sunday School will have some part in the program. The high school group will present a short play entitled "No Room in the Inn."
