John Curtis has been appointed by the county court as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Ella M. Vanderlip who died recently.

Two bills which are certain to arouse public interest have been introduced at Salem. One of the measures is to bar Japanese from land ownership in Oregon, a matter which should receive the strong endorsement of the lawmakers. The other bill is also of vital importance and proposes free books for public schools.

Gansle Gansle has purchased a new Ford car from the local agent, Charles Poole.

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland, was in Halsey Wednesday and while here treated a number of his patients.

The Thimble Club will meet at the home of Mrs. James Drinkard on Friday, February 9th instead of January 26th.

J. A. McCullough and daughter Miss Letha, of Albany, and Clem Irvin and his two sons autoed to the McCullough ranch last Saturday. When near Fred Smith's place the machine got stuck in the mud and it was with considerable difficulty that Mr. McCullough was able to dislodge it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson returned Wednesday from Portland where they had been for the past two weeks. Mrs. Robertson receiving medical treatment. She visited at Tangent for a few hours on her way home from Portland.

H. L. Foakes, of Cottage Grove, is a recent arrival in Halsey and will have charge of the auto repair work at the Halsey Garage. Mr. Foakes has had some seventeen years of experience in his particular line of work and comes well recommended as a first-class mechanic. He guarantees all his work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson of Cottage Grove, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ribelin Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Atkinson is a banker of Cottage Grove and lessee of the Cinderella mine. They were accompanied by George McCullough, lessee of the Great Northern property. The two gentlemen went to Brownsville in the evening and while in Linn county will see the county court in regard to the improvement of the road to Calapoia, so that the ore from their mines can be brought out more easily.

Rev. J. D. Cain, the Methodist minister, and the Rev. Ernest C. Richards, secretary of education at Willamette University, who occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church here Sunday evening, departed Tuesday for Portland where they are attending the Northwestern General Conference of the Methodist church which convenes in that city on the 17, 18 and 19.

Benton Courier:—Sixty years ago, Uncle Joe Yates of this city, 82 years young, set out some apple trees near Halsey, Linn county, and last week a basket of most perfect apples, picked from these trees was received by him. He set the trees in 1857, soon after he came to Oregon from Arkansas, and they have borne steadily since. And yet easterners tell us the life of apple trees is short in Oregon, compared with Eastern fruit trees.

B. M. Bond was a visitor at Albany Monday.

Mrs. George W. Laubner was a visitor at the county seat Tuesday.

A body recently removed from one plot to another in the Odd Fellows cemetery in Eugene had been found petrified. The body was that of a woman who had been buried 16 years ago.

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER WHY W-B CUT TOBACCO IS BEST AND CHEAPEST

HERE'S something curious about W-B CUT Chewing—it takes less out of your pocket and puts a better chew into your mouth. No big plug sagging your pocket, no big wad sagging your cheek. Half as much of this rich tobacco goes twice as far as ordinary plug. W-B saves your silver and gives you a silver-lining feeling of happiness all over. You can't help from telling your friends about W-B.
