High School Notes

Miss Louise Rike started to school Monday and will take up the second semester's work. The high school students are pleased to welcome her.

The high school student body convened Monday afternoon. A motion was made and carried that a high school party be given at the hall Saturday night, February 17th. Extensive preparations will be provided for in a later meeting. Students, alumni and teachers are to be present with their invited guests.

Harold Stevenson, who took post-graduate work in high school the first semester, departed Monday for Corvallis where he will take up work in the O. A. C. The students regret his departure, but wish him success in his college work.

Miss Perkins, the new teacher, is getting acquainted with her classes for their journey together to the end of the year. Indications show that both students and teachers will enjoy a congenial and successful semester.

February 1st and 2nd witnessed mid-year examinations and excitement. When the dust had cleared away results were found to be gratifying. Although some failed to make good in certain subjects, yet conditions are such that by better work the last half, losses will be made up, and full credits established.

The high school was genuinely sorry to lose George Schroll from its ranks. George graduated at mid-year but will probably take part in commencement exercise in June.

Church of Christ Notes

The Bible School lesson will be found in the 4th Chapter of John's Gospel. The woman of Samaria and Jesus. Many find that that this hour is spent in a very profitable manner. The Loyal Sons class is making a systematic study of the entire book of John. Young men are invited to enroll in this class.

Consistent progress is being made in the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. A special program was conducted last Lord's Day. The contest with the Harrisburg Society is stimulating in a practical way. The Endeavor Expert Class will take the final examination next Sunday afternoon.

The sermon themes for next Lord's Day:
"Christ; His parabolic teaching."
"The Man of My Heart."

The evening service will be of special interest to young people. The talk will have to do with "The Ideal Young Man." Letters and suggestions from the young ladies of Halsey will be considered.
