SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Linn.
Matilda F. Jackson, Plaintiff, vs. J. C. Jackson, Defendant.

To J. C. Jackson, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff in the above entitled court now on file with the Clerk of said court within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, it is hereby required, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to wit:

For a decree of the court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and defendant and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem proper in the premises.

This Summons is published by virtue of an order made by Hon. F. M. Knight, Judge of the County Court of Linn County, State of Oregon, duly made and entered of record in the above entitled court and comes on the 23rd day of January, 1917, which order specifies that this summons be published for six consecutive weeks in the Halsey Enterprise and that the date of the first publication be the 19th day of January, 1917, and the date of the last publication, March 8, 1917.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
