WHEN THE WAR'S GOING TO END

bsolute knowledge have I none, my aunt's washerwoman's son
I a policeman on his beat y to a laborer on the street
That he had a letter just last week
Written in the finest Greek
From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo
Who said the niggers in Cuba knew
Of a colored man in a Texas town
Who got it straight from a circus clown
That a man in Klondyke heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews
About somebody in Borneo Who heard of a dame who claimed to know
Of a mining guy that made a stake
Whose mother-in-law will undertake To prove that her sister's husband's niece
Has staid in a printed piece
That she has a son who has a friend Who knows when the war is going to end.—Ex.

The Halsey Red Cross committees did nobly.

When you write a letter say something good about the town you live in. It is as important as the stamp.

Don't think less of your town because it is small. The biggest town in the history of the world was Bethlehem.

George Palmer Putnam, the Bend newspaper man, has resigned as private secretary to Governor Withycombe.

Albany reports herself ready to entertain her Fourth of July and Round-Up visitors most royally, and they will come from all parts of Oregon.

Heretofore this nation has drafted men in war time but not property. It has been the rich man's war and the poor man's fight. Now it is proposed to make the present generation pay some of the bills by securing some of the profits of great wealth. This is as it should be. All should share the burden. If one man has to fight and another man remains at home to accumulate more wealth, the latter should help pay the costs of the war. He has received the protection of the nation and in her hour of need he should rally to her support.

ASTOUNDING REPORT FOR HALSEY

The wife of a merchant had stomach trouble so bad she could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else would sour and ferment. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka benefited her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary canal it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has quickest action of anything we ever sold. L. F. Walton, druggist.
