We are still selling White Clover ice cream. Dean's Confectionery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ribelin are expected home from Belknap Springs this week.

Bring in your clover and vetch seed. Our warehouse is open. Johnson & Landon.

Mrs. Fred Robins and family, who had been at Belknap Springs for a couple of weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Penland and Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor motored to Newport Tuesday in the Penland car.

H. L. Straley and A. W. Esley, with their families, motored to Newport last Saturday, returning Wednesday.

Mr. A. V. Holgate and son Allen, accompanied by Mrs. George Hayes and children, motored to Albany Monday.

Stanley Stevenson, who is interested in the Linn Drug Co., at Eugene, was a Halsey visitor Monday evening.

We make a specialty of friendship, engagement and wedding rings. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany

Chas. Whitlatch and family have gone to Mapleton, where they will make their home, he having secured work on the railroad at that place.

Master Hadley and Miss Jean Curtis entertain a little party of their young friends this afternoon in celebration of their eleventh and sixth birthdays.

C. D. Kimberlin and son-in-law, Mr. Williams of Hillsboro, spent Saturday night at the J. W. Miller home, as they were passing through town on their way home from a hunting trip.

E. L. Gordon and family, of Portland, motored to Halsey last Thursday to visit their relatives, S. G. Robertson and W. H. Robertson and family. They went home Monday. Mr. Gordon is a mail clerk on the Portland-Ashland run.

Piano Lessons—Mrs. D. H. Talmadge of Salem would like to learn the possibility of establishing a piano class in Halsey. She has had successful experience in teaching; uses the Wm. Sherwood (Chicago) method, than which there is no better, and will endeavor to give satisfaction at reasonable price. Phone or call at the Enterprise office for further information.

Harold Stevenson was over from Corvallis Sunday.

The best melons you ever ate for sale at Dean's Confectionery. Try one.

For Sale—A quantity of second hand clover sacks for sale at a bargain. Johnson & Landon.

Mrs. Ara Miller of Centralia, Wash., arrived last Thursday and is visiting at the homes of her mother Mrs. Wm. Allen and her son E. C. Miller.

Reports from the H. O. Bennett sale, which Col. Ben Sudtelle is crying today, indicate a big attendance and the property selling at good prices.

Mrs. Nell Sawyer arrived on No. 14 Wednesday evening and is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Marsters, east of town.

Mr. Coates of the Coos Bay country was in our city Monday trying to buy some hay. He, like others who have been here for that purpose, found it a rather difficult proposition.

Mr. Landon, of Johnson & Landon, arrived from Albany Monday and has opened the warehouse on First street, where he is daily receiving clover and vetch seed. Mr. Johnson, who lives in Michigan, will not be here this year as they thought the crop would not justify the trip. However Mr. Landon tells us that the crop is much better than expected and that he is sorry Mr. Johnson is not here to open the Harrisburg house.

Clover Warehouse Open

The clover warehouse of Johnson & Landon at this place was opened Wednesday, with Mr. Landon in charge, and considerable seed has already been taken in. This firm has the best of reputation for paying good prices and for fairness in dealing. Mr. Landon informs the Enterprise that in addition to buying clover and vetch seed they will also do general cleaning this season.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.
