

HURRY

Next week Saturday, November 10, is positively the last day we give FREE a fine large picture with every order amounting to $3.00 or over

With the high cost of living and everything calling for economy, nothing will make as cheap or a more appreciated gift than a dozen nice photos of yourself, especially if you are a friend or relative of a soldier boy at the front. As this class of work will make a greater demand for Christmas pictures than ever before, and as we are unable to hire skilled help at that time it is absolutely necessary to get a large part of the Christmas work done in the next few weeks.

Your Friends Can Buy Anything You Can Give Them --- Except YOUR PHOTOGRAPH

For Christmas—your photograph. The simple gift that lends the touch of friendship without an obligation.

The Halsey Enterprise
An Independent Newspaper.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

W. A. PRIAULX, Publisher
D. H. TALMADGE, Editor

Entered as second-class matter October 3, 1912, at the post office at Halsey, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Devoted to the material upbuilding of Halsey and surrounding country and Linn county generally. Subscription rate $1.50 per year in advance.

Two Letters

The Enterprise was privileged to read this week two letters from a Halsey boy now in the service of the nation—Vincent Cain, in an aviation corps at San Antonio, Texas.

The first letter was a lengthy one brimming with enthusiasm and carrying big news. The corps of which he is a member had been ordered to France, and the joy with which the order was received was far from comporting with the belief which exists in some quarters that the boys are not eager to leave their home land in the pursuit of duty.

"It is the best news we could possibly have had," says the letter, "except the news of a permanent peace."

The second letter was short and full of disappointment. A case of measles had developed in the mess, and several of the boys, including young Cain, had been ordered into quarantine. And the corps was leaving for France without them. Tough luck.

John Cain has been transferred from San Antonio to Detroit, so the brothers are separated.

High School Notes

Miss Adams of Brownsville visited high school Monday.

The high school will have their hallowe'en party at the hall Friday evening.

Examinations will be given throughout the whole school Thursday and Friday.

It is secretly wished by some of the students that the goblins might get the examination questions.

The Brownsville high school students were given a reception last Wednesday night by the Halsey High, after the speaking at the hall.

When you receive a sample copy of the Enterprise please take it as an invitation to subscribe.

Remember, you can get the Oregon Farmer for one year absolutely free by paying a year in advance for the Enterprise.

Certain Cure for Croup

Mrs. Rose Middleton of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

Will Halsey Support It?

Like a meteor flashing from the heavens comes the announcement that R. H. Nichols is to inaugurate a new deal for the amusement loving people of Halsey and surrounding country.

In the way of an experiment he will show at the opera house Saturday night, Nov. 10, a program which for attractiveness and excellence is not surpassed by any theatre anywhere, even in the big cities.

The question is, will Halsey support a weekly entertainment of this character?

Prices and other particulars will be announced definitely later, but it is stated that prices will be so low that everybody can afford to go and take his wife and children.

The experiment is watched with the keenest of interest.

Lake Creek Items

Lewis Thompson and family returned from Alsea Monday, where they had spent several days. They brought home a nice supply of salmon.

Mr. Theodore Falk and family of Salem were visiting Mrs. Falk's sister, Mrs. Amos A. Mitzner and family, last Sunday.

C. R. Evans and sisters, Mary and Maria, returned Monday evening from Portland where they spent Sunday, with their brother, Ed Evans and family.

Mrs. W. A. Brock is quite ill. Roy Owen returned from Portland last week where he had been visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Douglass.

Mrs. Clarence Williams is visiting her mother, Mrs. Brock, in Halsey this week.

A farewell reception was given last Saturday evening at the home of J. W. Owen, in honor of Miss Varie Haines, who will soon leave for Berkeley, California, where she expects to enter school. The evening was spent in games and a good social time until the wee sma' hours of the night. After a delicious lunch, prepared by the ladies present, all joined in wishing Miss Haines much success and good luck in her new work.

Mrs. P. O. Stuchell Tells How She Cured Her Son of a Cold

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good qualities have been fully proven by many thousands of people. It is pleasant and safe to take.

"Only a Volunteer"

Editor Halsey Enterprise:

This was written by one of the boys who volunteered and is now stationed at Fort Bliss, Okl. If it is worth reprinting kindly publish it. It expresses my feelings to the finish.—Clyde A. Crawford, Co. I Signal Corps U. S. A., Ft. Leavenworth, Kas.

Why didn't I wait to be drafted And be led to the train by a band,

And put in my claim for exemption—

Oh, why didn't I hold up my hand?

Why didn't I wait for the banquet,

Why didn't I wait to be cheered?

For drafted men get all the credit,

While I merely volunteered.

And nobody gave me a banquet,

Nobody said a kind word;

The puff of the engine, the grind of the wheels,

Was all the good-bye that I heard;

Then off to the training camp hustled,

To be trained for the next half a year,

And in the shuffle forgotten—I was only a volunteer.

And perhaps some day in the future,

When my little boy sits on my knee

And asks what I did in the great war,

And his eyes look up at me,

I will have to look back into those eyes

That at me so trustingly peer,

And tell him that I was not drafted—

I was only a volunteer.

War Time Recipes

Every loaf, cake or muffin made in whole or in part from some other cereal than wheat flour is entitled to a place in the long list of war breads that patriotic cooks have been zealously making as their contribution to the food conservation campaign. Most housewives know how to make rye bread and cornmeal muffins, but there are many excellent ways of using wheat flour substitutes which are not yet common knowledge.

The Royal Baking Powder company has collected in a little booklet, which it calls "Best War Time Recipes," twenty splendid formulas for making such interesting and patriotic foods as rye rolls, hominy muffins and eggless milkless and butterless cakes. The booklet is dedicated to the housewives of the United States who are assisting the government through its food administration.

The Enterprise prints sale bills, the kind that draw the crowds.

Junior Rifle Corps

We have received the advanced literature, targets, rules, etc., of the Junior Rifle Corps Campaign, conducted by the Winchester Arms Co.

All boys and girls under the age of 18 years are eligible to membership in the club, which extends all over the country. For further information come in and ask for the leaflets.

We have received also many interesting booklets on the subject of trapshooting, and on the Hunt of Bigger Game, issued for the older sportsmen. These may be had for the asking.

We are also able to handle any orders for shotgun shells and rifle shells at the cheapest possible prices.
