Miss Neva Perkins went to Eugene Sunday, where she attended the teachers institute. From there she will go to her home in Cottage Grove for the holidays.

Numerous pamphlets on the great war situation have been received by the Halsey public library from the National Security League. These are most interesting and may be had for the asking.

F. H. Porter returned home Tuesday, having attended the Land Products show at Portland.

The threatened freeze of Monday became a threatened rain Tuesday. Much of the bad weather in this valley is of the threatened variety.

To win the war we must save food in every household, and at every meal, and in this work the housewives of America are as an army with banners.

Bruce Drinkard, formerly of this place but who has been living at Hartline, Wash., for several years, is visiting friends and relatives in Halsey.

Fish is a good food—eat more of it instead of meal. Corn meal makes good bread—use it instead of wheat. Save the meat and wheat for the boys at the front.

Samples of the potatoes she is raising on her Jefferson county ranch have been received in Halsey from Mrs. Cross and are attracting much admiring notice. They are displayed in the window at Cross & White's.

Homer Mornhinweg, who is a member of Red Cross Ambulance Corps No. 14, now stationed at Camp Lewis, Tacoma, is spending Thanksgiving with the home folks here. Homer is of the best type of patriotic young citizens this country has.

Miss Gertrude Porter came home Wednesday evening from Forest Grove, where she is attending Pacific University. She was joined here by the rest of the family and the trip was continued to Eugene, where they will eat Thanksgiving dinner.

A new book has been placed in the Halsey public library by the National Security League entitled "Out of Their Own Mouths." The book is composed of utterances of German rulers, statesmen, savants, publicists, journalists, poets, business men, party leaders and soldiers, and explains fully Germany's attitude in the world war. This volume should be widely read.

Certain Cure for Croup

Mrs. Rose Middleton of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

Sick Wife's Story Surprises Halsey

The following has surprised Halsey: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's-ka relieved her INSTANTLY.

Because Adler's-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. L. E. Walton, druggist.

The Enterprise prints sale bills, the kind that draw the crowds.

Don't let rats in your corn crib eat holes in our national defense.

M. E. Church Notes

"The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me." Hebrews 13:6.

Come out to Sunday school and hear our Sunbeam choir and you will go away feeling one day younger.

The youngsters are beginning to wonder about Christmas? ? ?

Dr. Pollard will deliver an interesting lecture this Wednesday evening at the church. Subject, The Mammoth Caves.

The regular official board meeting was held on Monday evening and the regular business for the month disposed of in a satisfactory way.

Rev. James Moore will be here on Wednesday evening, Dec. 5, to hold the first quarterly conference.

We are much pleased to note the interest taken in the older boys' conference to meet at Eugene Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 and 2. Our high school and both Sunday schools will be represented with full delegations. Those from the M. E. will be Charles Straley, Lyman Marsters, Geo. W. Schroll and Claron Gormley. Some prominent men are to speak and they will have something good.

A large crowd was present at the unveiling of the honor roll last Sunday eve. The good music and the letters from our boys brought deeper thrills of patriotism and a desire to cultivate the unselfish things in this life. The trend of the letters brought out much of the better side and humorous spots in the soldier boy's life. From "the mosquitoes lined up like Plymouth Rock chickens" in the south to the boys dubbed "Teddy and Sammies" in France. The names of the twenty boys who are inscribed on the League honor roll are as follows: Ruel M. Bond, Leland J. Bond, Fred Bennett, Phillip Bukoski, Vincent Cain, John Cain, Everett E. Cary, Clifford Cary, Enoch Cunningham, Charles Mornhinweg, Homer Mornhinweg, Claud McKern, Walter H. Rike, Clarence Soderstrom, Ernest Soderstrom, Harrison Wallace, Raymond Vanata, Charles E. Waggner, James B. Waggner, Edward N. Warmoth.
