Dr. Lindberg, the Dentist, Harrisburg.

The Enterprise for printing.

Mrs. T. P. Patton left Saturday noon for Portland where she will visit with friends and relatives the coming two weeks.

Mrs. E. N. Warmoth, Mrs. Grant Taylor, Mrs. C. P. Stafford and George Schroll drove to Harrisburg in the Warmoth machine Monday.

Miss Neva Whitlach arrived today from Montana where she has been keeping house for her brother Marion the past year. She is the guest of Mrs. E. N. Warmoth.

D. J. Hayes, for many years a resident of Halsey, but who for a number of years has resided in Montana, arrived in Halsey Tuesday and will spend some of the winter here.

Our store is full of bright and sparkling gifts for Christmas. Every show case contains gold and silver representing the highest art in design and workmanship. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

A dispatch from Corvallis under date of Dec. 10 tells of the death of Mrs. Sarah Martin Smith at her home near Peoria. Mrs. Smith was 83 years old and a pioneer of Linn county. She is survived by three children—C. S. and Miss Nan Smith, who lived on the old farm with their mother, and Mrs. Frank Frisby of McMinnville, formerly a resident of Halsey.

Mrs. Dan Nash returned Monday to her home at Vancouver, Wash.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Talmadge met at the Enterprise office Tuesday evening and enjoyed an informal class recital. Incidentally they tried the new piano which is on exhibition there.

Meatless Tuesdays and wheatless Wednesdays are observed at the Hotel Halsey. The bills of fare on those days this week included fish, chicken, and buckwheat cakes, corn and rye bread.

McMahan & Frum shipped two cars of hogs from Tulsa on the Oregon Electric Wednesday. The change of shipping point was made necessary by their failure to secure Southern Pacific cars.

William Marsters, who has been attending Willamette University for two years, was home Wednesday night and left Thursday morning for Portland where he intends to enlist either in the aviation or radio corps.

The Halsey Home Guard meets for drill each Monday night. The next meeting will be of special interest and every member is urged to be present. At this meeting it is proposed to arrange for a competitive squad drill contest.

BRACELET WATCHES
We have a complete assortment of bracelet watches. Our little "Gruen" bracelet watch is a wonder. We will lay one away for you until Christmas. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Mrs. Elliott arrived Tuesday evening from Tennessee and left immediately for Brownsville to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Been, who recently purchased a farm near Brownsville after living on the Bonnett and McCully place south of town for a year.

The following were at Albany Saturday on business connected with the Red Cross and other matters: Mrs. George Laubner, Mrs. J. W. Manrose, Mrs. N. E. Taylor, Mrs. J. J. Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor, Mrs. E. B. Penland, Mrs. M. J. Quick, H. C. Davis and D. S. McWilliams.

How to Prevent Croup
In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off and all danger and anxiety avoided.

Sick Wife's Story Surprises Halsey

The following has surprised Halsey: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka relieved her INSTANTLY.

Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. L. E. Walton, druggist.

Old papers at this office.

M. E. Church Notes

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.—Ex. 20:8.

The Sunday schools of America are asked to raise $1,000,000 on Christmas Sunday for the destitute Armenians and Syrians. More than a million of these innocent people have been driven from their homes by the cruel Turks. In making our gifts let us remember these sufferers whose lives depend on the charity of others. Definite plans will be made next Sunday.

The Philathea class held their regular business meeting Tuesday evening with Effie Walton at the home of Mrs. Brandon. The regular business was taken care of and some plans talked over for important work after the holidays.

The reports of the Boys Conference held recently in Eugene will be given at the Baracca class Sunday morning. All members of the class are requested to give one reason why we should observe the Sabbath day.

The appeal by the pastor at the last Sunday morning service for subscriptions to build the Old People's Home at Salem met with a response of $110. The amount asked for was $100.

The W. F. M. S. met with Mrs. McWilliams Friday afternoon with seventeen ladies present. The lesson, "The Work of Methodists in Africa," was led by Mrs. B. M. Miller and Mrs. F. M. Gray. Mrs. M. T. Sneed, chairman of the Home Missionary Committee, reported a box of fruit and vegetables sent to the Old People's Home. Mrs. O. M. Miller was elected superintendent of the Standard Bearers.

The King's Heralds will meet at the church next Saturday at 2 p. m. Every youngster takes a sack of eats and a toy.

Mrs. Roy Worley of Albany was in Halsey Saturday looking up the prospects of again forming a class in vocal training. Mrs. Worley, formerly Miss Sarah Ella Pratt, was at one time a resident of Halsey but moved to Albany a good many years ago, and while residing there four years ago conducted a class here.

KRYPTOK

What would mother like best for Christmas?

Does she have to sacrifice knitting and reading in the evening? Is she enduring the inconvenience of wearing two pairs of glasses or changing them between close and far-seeing?

Why not get her a pair of Kryptoks, the invisible bi-focals, which will bring back the close and far vision of her girlhood? The comfort, convenience and appearance will surely make her happy.
