The Adjutant General says in a communication to this office that except to fill vacancies in calls already made, no more men will be drafted from Oregon before Feb. 15. Oregon is one of only ten states that have already filled their quotas in the first draft.

John Hammond, who was recently struck by a train, is again at work, apparently none the worse for his experience.

Mrs. H. W. Ternan came up from Salem the first of the week and is the guest of Mrs. W. M. Allingham east of town.

We make a specialty of friendship, engagement and wedding rings. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Chas. Whitlatch returned to his work at Mapleton Friday, after spending the holidays at the Grant Taylor home in this city. His family will be in Halsey for a short time yet.

Ray Logan was in town between trains one day last week, having had to make a trip from Shaniko to Albany to correct his questionnaire, which had been mailed from the former place.

There were twenty-five ladies present at the Red Cross work room Tuesday afternoon, but more help is needed to do the work that is to be done, and all ladies are urged to come out and help.

Mr. Hendricks, pastor of the Christian church in Halsey, was a New Year's visitor in our city, having stopped over on his return to Eugene from Portland, where he spent the holidays with his parents.

An event of more than ordinary interest is announced for Albany in the near future, when Major T. B. Edwards and Capt. T. J. LeDuc will give a patriotic lecture. These men are front line trench fighters, having spent months in the early part of the war with the Canadian troops. They are to open the campaign in Portland next Sunday at 3 p.m.

The Red Cross entertainment and watch party at the opera house Monday night was well attended, the net proceeds being $70. The affair was an enjoyable one in every way, the watch party being especially pleasant in a social way. A feature of the party was a talk by Rev. Cain on the Red Cross work, an earnest, straight-from-the-shoulder talk that was good to listen to.

Soon Over His Cold

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N.Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."

Lake Creek Items

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ardry were guests of Al Hentges and mother one day last week.

Joe Owen returned from Eugene and Springfield, where he had been visiting relatives, and went to Portland to spend the holidays with friends.

Mrs. Harry Leeper and little son Francis were recent visitors at Eugene.

We have been informed that Clarence Williams, J. W. Morgan, J. A. Burns and Tom Jackson have each recently built a new chicken house. Lee says it pays.

We are glad to note that Lewis Thompson has mostly recovered from the kick he got from a horse a short time ago.

Sunday of last week Rev. Stermer because of high water had to cross the river at Irish bend in a small boat in order to fill his appointment at McFarland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hyde of Prineville spent Xmas with Mrs. Hyde's father, L. R. Wilson of Nixon Station.

Miss Allie Wilson, who teaches in Albany, is home for vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Copley, Mr. and Mrs. Tom George and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logan were initiated in the Farmers' Union Saturday a week ago. A good crowd attended in spite of the rain. A feed of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served by the eats committee. As a contest is on for new members, now is the time to become a member of our union. We shall be glad to have you join us. Send in your name today. The union has over 60 members.

The farmers have begun to realize how to do business in the right way. A car of twenty tons of feed arrived at Nixon last week for different members of the union, and another order was made up for 22 tons Saturday evening.

The farmers of Lake Creek recently sold 84 hogs.

Mrs. Ledgerwood sold a hog she had fed that weighed over 300 pounds.

The women are falling in line to do their bit for their country.

Cut the High Cost of Living

By hitching your auto to the feed cutter and cutting all your cattle feed. It pays big now when feed is so high. We have received an advertisement from the Auto Tool Driving Attachment Co. of Portland which appears elsewhere in this issue, and wish to say that we are personally acquainted with the inventor of this device. H. L. Briggs is the inventor's name, and his home is in Salem. He began his experiments along this line some four or five years ago and finally secured a patent on the machine advertised. There is no question as to its merits.

Stomach Troubles

If you have trouble with your stomach you should try Chamberlain's Tablets. So many have been restored to health by the use of these tablets and their cost is so little, 25 cents, that it is worth while to give them a trial.

At this Holiday Season we like to think of our customers as our friends. We like to feel that in a broad sense our customers are our partners—that our success is but the reflection of theirs. And so, on the eve of a New Year, we extend to you our hearty good wishes with the sincere hope that the coming year will bring to you greater prosperity and happiness than ever before.

Halsey Girl May Get Pony

That the school children of Oregon are taking an active interest in conservation and are observing it in their individual homes is shown in the response to the recent state-wide essay contest on the subject "What We Can Do to Win the War," says the Sunday Oregonian.

The contest was inaugurated by the Oregon department of the United States Food Administration. Russell Hawkins of Tillamook will give three pure-blooded Shetland ponies to the three final winners.

Alberta Koontz of Halsey was the winner for Linn county in the upper grammar grade class.

M. E. Church Notes

"Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29.

A happy New Year for every member of the Sunday school and church and all the friends. May we start in next Sunday, the first of the new year, on time at Sunday school and bring some one with us.

The official board held the regular monthly meeting Monday night. The treasurer's report showed all bills paid in full to date.

The pastor went to Shedd Monday evening to assist Bro. Rees in a series of revival meetings at that place.

The W. F. M. S. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Smith. The leaders are Mrs. M. E. Gardner and Mrs. E. S. Masters. All ladies are invited to attend.

Remember, you can get the Oregon Farmer for one year absolutely free by paying a year in advance for the Enterprise.
