Could Exterminate Germans.
Experiments made since the German bombardment of Armentieres with a mysterious gas shell, have disclosed that the poison was arsine, known in the laboratory as arsenureted hydrogen, one of the deadliest fumes known to the chemists, according to a trench correspondent.

In Armentieres the gas from the shells continued its deadly work for nearly a week, although the shells were all thrown in one hour. More than 4,000 men, women and children died, many in convulsions and many stark mad.

The significant fact in regard to the arsine bomb which the Germans likely overlooked is that while the amount of the drug in Germany is limited, the allies have limitless supplies. If Britain and France wish to retaliate they could in less than a year manufacture these bombs in sufficient quantities to kill every living thing in the German empire.

It would be a question only of getting enough airplanes to carry and drop them.

To Warn Future Kings.
Premier Venizelos has announced his intention of placing a marble plaque in the chamber of deputies, where future kings may see it when they take the oath of office, warning them against usurping the rights of the people, writes an Athens correspondent.

He says that when he is in London, and visits the house of commons, he observes at the entrance to Westminster a conspicuous plaque reading: "Here was beheaded Charles I, King of England, for having usurped the liberties of the people of England." Whenever a king now goes to Westminster to open or close the work of parliament he passes directly before this plaque, which has served for 200 years to warn British kings not to trench on the rights of the people. Following this precedent, M. Venizelos will inscribe on the plaque in the chamber here:
"King Constantine lost his throne for treachery disavowing the parliament elected by the people and imposing his personal policy on the people, while the dismissed parliament returning to power upheld the constitutional institutions of the country."

His Coded Message.
That the big Fifth avenue hotels in New York have their canouffleurs, or as they are generally known, "four-flushers," was shown recently to many who were in the Peacock Alley of one hostelry. A bellhop had paged a man successfully and found him seated with two ladies. Obviously the individual enjoyed being with the ladies, and he wasn't a bit indignant about being paged publicly before them. "Here, boy, what is it?" he demanded with an imperious wave. "Telegram, sir," answered the bellhop, presenting his tray. The man took one look at the face of the message, flushed a bit un-comfortably, and then ordered the message returned to the office, where he would call for it later. "It's a code message, and I can't read it now," he explained to his fair companions. "I'll get my code book and get it later at the office." At the office the boy laid down the message with the explanation. "But it's not in code," retorted the clerk. The boy pointed to the face of the message. "It was code as far as his pocketbook was concerned," he said. "His spelling couldn't see the 85 cents." For there on the envelope it read, "C. O. D. 85."

A Good Plan.
"Her husband lets her have her own way in everything."
"It's a good idea."
"It is. She doesn't want to do half as many things she used to when she thought he was going to object to her doing some of them."

No Regrets.
Optimist-Well, thank goodness, for once I know where my diamond studs are!
Wife-Where?
Optimist-They are in one of those shirts we sent to the Belgians.-Life.

A Good Suggestion.
"Darling, now that you have consented to marry me I have an important question to ask."
"Yes, dear."
"Shall I buy you a diamond ring as an engagement present, or shall we take that money and put in a supply of sugar to start our married life with?"

Can You Beat It?
Once upon a time they published an order prohibiting gambling in Sing Sing. Two inmates were seen exchanging token money and they were hailed to the court.
"What's the charge?" asked the judge.
"Alleged gambling," said the deputy.
"I thought all the cards, dice, gambling paraphernalia and such were destroyed."
"They were," answered the deputy.
"but these two fellows were bettin' on whether it will rain today or not."

Distracting Attention.
"In the good old days town scolds were severely dealt with."
"So they were, but the ducking stool has gone out of fashion."
"Yes. About the only way we can hope to get any relief from a scold nowadays is to coax her into a motion picture theater and get her interested in a movie."

Stomach Troubles
If you have trouble with your stomach you should try Chamberlain's Tablets.
So many have been restored to health by the use of these tablets and their cost is so little, 25 cents, that it is worth while to give them a trial.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease.
Cataract is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Cataract Cure is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Cataract Cure was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the best tonics known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Cataract Cure is what produces such wonderful results in cataract conditions. Send for testimonials free.

Are You Eating
To Win the War?

This Newspaper recommends Today's Housewife to every patriotic woman who wishes to help win the great war

Today's Housewife is especially needed by every homemaker in the present war-crisis, because the seven Courses in Domestic Science now running in the magazine help housewives to better select, prepare and conserve food supplies, to cut down waste, and at the same time to add to the health and welfare of the entire family.

Today's Housewife is the only magazine that maintains a model home where cookery recipes, new household devices, cleaning methods, etc., are put to practical tests before their appearance in the pages of the magazine.

The monthly lesson on "Cookery, Foods and Nutrition" under the direction of Caroline Hunt of the Department of Agriculture, is alone worth the price of a ten-year subscription not only to the woman who follows each lesson but to the government of the United States in helping to win the terrific war with the Central Empires of Europe.

Favorite Magazine of Home-loving Women

REMEMBER,
better home-making is the ideal back of TO-DAY'S HOUSEWIFE, its reason for existence, its earnestly planned-for goal. Better homemaking in its largest sense, with the spiritual and mental no less than the material needs of the family in view; homemaking as the biggest of woman's opportunities rather than housekeeping as the most dreary of woman's duties.

While Today's Housewife stands in a class by itself in its practical value to homemakers, it is also noteworthy for its wonderfully inspiring editorials and special articles, for its clean, delightful stories, and its beautiful illustrations and covers by leading artists. Over one million women agree that TODAY'S HOUSEWIFE is worth several times the price of 10 cents per copy.
