

John B. Bell for Senator

(Editorial from Eugene Daily Guard of April 23, 1918)

The Central Oregon Enterprise, of Prineville, speaking of the candidacy of John B. Bell for senator from the joint district of Lane and Linn counties, states:

"If John is as popular in Lane county as he was in Crook county he might as well take a trip down to the state house and select his seat for the next session."

This is a creditable tribute to a man who was formerly associated with the business and interests of the Prineville community. Men may aspire to public office and go down to defeat and feel that they have lost nothing so long as they know their old friends and neighbors with whom it had been their pleasure to be associated honor them. It is a great distinction to be selected to serve the people of the state in the senate, but it is infinitely greater to have made a record in life in which the testimony of old acquaintances is to the effect that as a man you have been tried and found to be true to every trust.

It has been a good many years since John Bell lived in Prineville, but, across the space of time, comes the word to his new home: "He is a good man, you may well honor him."

John Bell needs no endorsement from outside of Lane county. His works here place him near the top of the column of the names of the county's good citizens. It is a pleasure, however, to read such a tribute to one you know. The time will come when he will be making a trip down to Salem and selecting his seat, just as the Prineville editor suggests.

The Guard has previously announced its belief that the people should disregard party and look to men who promise the greatest service in winning the war. To the people of Lane and Linn counties, regardless of party, it commends the candidacy of John B. Bell, republican, for the position of state senator, because it knows that he is 100 per cent American and a man whose plain business sense will make his service of value to his country, state and county.

John Bell is a steady going fellow. His business interests which are associated with those of both Lane and Linn counties are not large, but sufficient to mark him as a successful man. He has never made a practice of forcing himself into the limelight or seeking notoriety through the newspapers by playing to sensationalism. He has, however, taken an active part in public affairs in Eugene and Lane county. Since the declaration of war, he has participated in activities of vital interest to the nation. He has worked quietly and well. Where he has gone, results have followed and there has been no bellowing or blowing over accomplishment. He is moving about as a candidate for senator in the same effective way. He finds no occasion to assert that if he is elected he will save the state a million dollars. He knows that no man single-handed is going to perform such a feat in the senate of the state of Oregon. He has stated his platform briefly. It may be summed up in the single paragraph as follows:

"I stand for sane and businesslike legislative sessions, fewer and more effective laws, and for a vigorous and straightout policy in everything pertaining to the prosecution of the war."

That is platform enough for John B. Bell. The vote that he will receive in Eugene, his home city, on the day of the primary election, will attest that it is sufficient.

Vote for Bede

You're never in doubt as to where Elbert Bede stands on any subject. His slogan is: "I believe in saying what I think and in doing what I say." His editorial work has earned for him the right to use that slogan. Vote for him for joint senator. (Paid Adv.)

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Everyone should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

"America is Ready"

A great national feature is to be presented at the Halsey opera house Saturday night, May 4.

Manager Ward announces that he has been successful in securing the production, "America is Ready," which is said to be the most timely and official panorama of Uncle Sam's power on land, in the air and on and under the sea yet presented.

Road to Happiness

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These Tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

Thrift and W. S. Stamps

On Thrift Stamp day last week Halsey school sold 31 Thrifts and 3 W. S. S. The sales agencies sold 53 Thrifts and 2 W. S. S. Ask Eldon Cross how he does it!

Our school is right up to date this week by organizing a War Savings society with Lela Bond as president and Bertha Pyburn as secretary and a charter membership of 50. Watch 'em dig for new members. Members who secure ten new members, each of whom have acquired a War Savings Stamp or Thrift Stamps of equal value, will be rewarded with a badge with one star, those securing 25 new members 2 stars, and so on.

Our whole duty is to educate the people to thrift, to loyalty, to self-support, self-government and the other virtues of free men, women and children, and to sell our full quota of War Stamps is the goal before us. Oregon's quota is $17,500,000, of which $3,000,000 has been sold, leaving $14,500,000 to be sold in the next eight months.

The Recital

The recital given by the High School and Halsey Concert orchestras, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Hayes of Halsey and Miss Gwenith Davis of Crabtree, vocal soloists, and Mrs. Nicholls of Lebanon, reader, drew a big audience to the opera house last night. Much interest has been taken in the musical work that has been in progress here since last fall under direction of Prof. Nicholls, particularly that in the city school, and this was the first public performance of the two organizations. It is the consensus of public opinion that the results are very good. The school orchestra, which Prof. Nicholls has developed from almost entirely new material, plays nicely. It was an enjoyable entertainment throughout. The proceeds were about $50.

Let's Go!

Where? To Shedd.
When? May 17, 18 and 19.
Why? Because of the Linn county C. E. convention.

The program begins Friday night with an address by Dr. White. Then Rev. Hendricks will lead a Quiet Watch. Saturday will be a day full of good things. In the morning there will be campaign conference led by one of the state executive committee. The afternoon session will be conducted by the Intermediates and Juniors, and in the evening Rev. Pershing will speak. Sunday Miss Whipple will be with us.

More definite announcement will be made later of the registration fee and banquet, as well as life work recruit meeting. Committee.

Best Remedy for Whooping Cough
"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts of East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.

Christian Church Notes

Sunday last week Gertrude McKern told us all about the Sunday school convention. Such reports, clear and interesting, are an inspiration to all to do better service in this important part of the master's work. Mr. Hendricks preached the first sermon of a series on the message to the seven churches of Asia, and Mrs. Robnett sang "Nailed to the Cross" as a communion solo.

The Endeavors are doing good work. Of course the aim is still the Campaign Chart, and we were enjoying the new bulletin board last Sunday. Linn county convention dates are drawing nearer, May 18-19-20, and Halsey plans to keep the banner this year.

Mrs. Chance gave the Home Department report from twenty-three members. There were 23 members. There were 254 studied lessons and an offering of $4.38.

Sunday night the congregation attended the lecture by Prof. Horner at the Methodist church.

Mr. Hendricks will preach Sunday morning on "A Corrupt Church," and in the evening will tell "Ten reasons why some men reject the gospel."

The Endeavors have installed their bulletin board, and Sunday morning found there a poster telling of the C. E. convention. Last year the Halsey society carried off the Union banner, but competition was keen, and now it promises to be still more intense.

Don't Hesitate to Ask Questions

Are you doing enough driving with lights off to keep your battery properly charged?

Are you replacing the evaporation, which is always going on, by a proper amount of distilled water?

Are you sure current isn't being lost daily by some defect in wiring or connections?

Does current flow freely?

If you'll stop the next time you see our service sign, we'll be glad to answer as many questions as you can find time to ask.

And don't forget to include an inquiry about the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.
