'Joan the Woman'

"Joan the Woman," the photoplay to be shown at the Globe Theatre, Albany, on May 29 and Decoration Day, is one of the greatest productions, picturing the greatest event in history, modernized somewhat to show the present spirit that is backing the wonderful and noble republic of France in its great struggle against the "Beast of Berlin."

There are battle scenes, scenes at court and outdoor scenes surpassing anything attempted heretofore. The "Battle of the Towers," with its more than 3000 men actually participating, will go down into motion picture history as a perfect achievement.

"Joan the Woman" is a picture of the old story known the world over of a peasant maid who led the soldiers of France to victory against the English at Orleans. She is betrayed afterwards and captured. She is thrown into prison and is later burned as a witch. Every man, woman and child in Linn county should see this girl in this picture, for "Joan the Woman" is a picture which will last in the minds of those who see it.

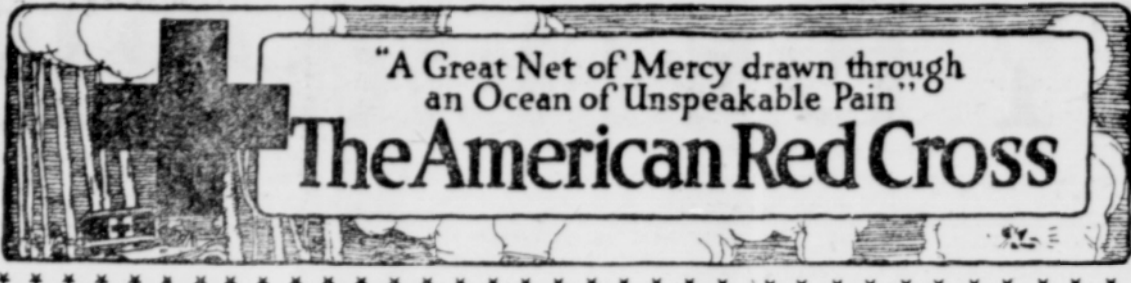

Road to Happiness

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These Tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

M. E. Church Notes

Next Sunday school lesson: Jesus Silences his Adversaries. "Render unto Caesar the Things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."—Mark 12:17.

"Duty makes us do things well. But love makes us do them beautifully."

The Philatheas and Baracas were invited to the parsonage Tuesday evening to hold their business meetings, which were held according to their usual routine. After which the two classes joined in a good social time, writing letters to Vincent Cain, Everett and Clifford Carey, and others. Sister Cain served nice refreshments. The Philatheas are planning for a cooked food sale soon.

The Epworth League convention proved to be a decided success for the management, a religious and intellectual treat for the large crowds that attended the meetings. The district president, Miss Virginia Mason of Jefferson, Oregon, presided in a capable manner. The addresses were filled with good food thoughts. The reports from the various chapters enthused the delegates. Rev. Jos. Knott and Dr. Lane filled their appointments and did justice to their subjects. Dr. Parkinson spoke four times, first to the Sunday school on the Babylonian Tablets, two sermons morning and evening, and before the school on Monday on the Historic Battlefields of Lexington and Concord. The address of Col. Leader to a packed house thoroughly stirred the patriotism of all present. The Colonel is a trained British soldier of long experience in South Africa and other conflicts and has passed through some great experiences.

an Irishman of rare wit and humor, a fine story teller. It has been said of him that there is probably no one on the platform today better posted on war conditions. He is in great demand as a speaker and one who has heard him a number of times said he had never heard him make a better speech than he did at Halsey.

Entertainment and Supper

A patriotic program will be given by the Lake Creek school Saturday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock. Supper consisting of sandwiches, coffee, pie, cake, pickles, etc., will be served by the ladies from 7 till 8 o'clock and also after the program. Proceeds for the Red Cross. Donations for the supper will be greatly appreciated by the ladies.

THE RED CROSS MAN

By AMELIA JOSEPHINE BURR
Of the Vigilantes.

Broken with pain and weariness
And sapped with vile disease,
Back to the land of ruined towns,
Of murdered men and trees,
Through Switzerland from Germany
The trains of wreckage ran.—
And on the French frontier they found
A Red Cross Man.

And when to what had once been home
Those haggard exiles came,
Young wheat was green above the scars
Of steel and blood and flame
Round new built houses where once more
The work of life began.
And still they found to welcome them
A Red Cross Man.

There the husband clasped again
The wife he mourned as dead—
The child was on its mother's breast,
The old were comforted.
What wonder if they hope to find
The Angel of God's Plan
Who meets them at the heavenly gate
A Red Cross Man!
