Looks like a war celebration in this town.
No more reduced railway rates for a while.

Charles P. Poole was over from Brownsville Saturday.

Albany will have a Red Cross 4th of July celebration.

E. C. Miller is now local agent for the Salem Steam Laundry.

See announcement of teachers' examinations in another column.

L. W. Byerley is the owner of a fine Jersey cow, bought last week.

Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Drinkard journeyed to the county capital Saturday.

The Halsey high school graduates received many fine presents and beautiful flowers.

Save wheat, sugar, meats and fats. It may mean a return ticket for the boys in France.

The A. L. Falk country home now enjoys a fine organ, bought through the Sherman, Clay & Co. agency.

The Times reports the Brownsville picnic to have been the smallest in years. It wasn't Halsey's fault.

Col. Ben Sudtall is a whirlwind auctioneer. A visitor at the Brownsville picnic tells us that Ben sold a Red Cross quilt over there for somewhat more than a hundred dollars.

The draft list for June 24 has been made out and sent to those concerned. Linn county will furnish 62 men, only one of whom is listed as being from Halsey—William Bednar.

The eclipse was viewed satisfactorily here, although clouds threatened.

County Commissioner Butler is reported seriously ill from heart trouble at his home in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leeper, who went to Mapleton Saturday, expect to be gone about two weeks.

E. D. Cusick of Albany has been named as vice president for Oregon of the American Bankers association.

Auto tourists are numerous on the Pacific Highway. A good many of them stop at Frank Kirk's gasoline establishment.

The aphids are a persistent little pest. We are told of one small field of vetch from which six bushels of them were gathered.

J. D. Pitman, who has been in Portland taking treatment for rheumatism, returned home Monday evening feeling considerably better than when he left.

County Superintendent Ida M. Cummings is out with a statement denying emphatically the slightest disloyalty on her part to the United States. The statement is the result of talk circulated to the effect that she made a pro-German address at Rock Hill schoolhouse, near Lebanon, on May 15.

Phonograph for Sale—Anyone wishing a bargain in an Edison phonograph call at this office. Nineteen records go with it.

Arrangements have been made for a reduced railroad fare of approximately one cent a mile for soldiers and sailors who desire to visit their homes before going overseas.

We hear much comment on the address delivered by President Kerr at the Brownsville picnic last week. It went far in the way of opening the eyes of many people to the seriousness of the food situation.

The Halsey boys who registered June 5 as having attained the age of 21 since June 5, 1917, are Estus Buss, Harry Godley Bressler, Ralph Emmerson Savage, Roy McNeese, Claron Lewis Gormley.

Senator Garland denies the statement recently made in the Oregonian that his position on the national prohibition question is doubtful. He states that he favored it four years ago and favors it now. Furthermore he says the Oregonian never asked him as to his position on the question.

It is announced that eleven Linn county men who volunteered as mechanics have been called by the government and will leave about June 15 for Portland, where they will receive special training at a government school in preparation for an early departure for France. Fred G. Smith of Halsey is included among the number.

The Junior Red Cross of the Halsey schools has made a good showing since it begun its activities several months ago. The following report has been made to headquarters at Albany: 1st and 2d grades, gunwipes and box of feathers; 3d and 4th grades, feathers and gunwipes and 2 quilts; 5th and 6th grades, 13 squares and 2 quilts; 7th and 8th grades and high school, 1 quilt and 8 sheets and 9 pairs of pillow slips.

J. S. Van Winkle of Albany was re-elected chairman of the Linn county republican central committee last week. Miss Leila Mitchell of Albany was chosen secretary and W. C. Depew of Lebanon treasurer. Joseph Hume of Brownsville was elected state committeeman and W. L. Wells of Halsey congressional committeeman.

Jas. McClellan, field secretary of the Taxpayers' Protective association, was in town Friday on the jump from the picnic at Brownsville to the picnic at Goshen, wherever that is. He is circulating two initiative petitions—one to do away with the publication of the delinquent tax list, the other to reduce the cost of publishing all kinds of legal notices. He had an armload of signatures.

Prof. Roberts of Salem, who will give a piano and pipe organ concert in Albany later in the month, will be in Halsey for a couple of days. He will look over the Sherman, Clay & Co. pianos recently put in the homes here, and will work with Mrs. Talmadge in tuning or repairing for any others who may desire it. This is a rare opportunity to have your instrument put in good order, as Prof. Roberts thoroughly understands his work and has had long and successful experience.

Emma Lorena Frum, age 26, of near Plainview, died June 8 at the home of J. H. Thompson in Albany. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. S. E. Frum of Albany and eight brothers and sisters, George Frum of Halsey, O. W. Frum of Halsey, Ray Frum of Brownsville, Walter Frum of Halsey, Mrs. L. O. Luebner of St. Helens, Mrs. Ella Cushman of Silverton, Mrs. Nettie Thompson of Albany and Mrs. Vernetta Frum of Albany. Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church at Albany Sunday, June 9.

"I have had excellent results in control of maggots on radishes, turnips, cabbage, kale and cauliflower by use of kreso No. 1 sheep dip," reports a Corvallis grower. "I diluted at the rate of 1 to 50, and for the first time in years produced plants free of maggots, in unprotected places." "We are getting many favorable reports such as this while other growers report injury," says Prof. Lovett, entomologist at O. A. C. "Sheep dips vary in concentration and where other dips are used it is probably well to begin with a dilution of 1 to 125."

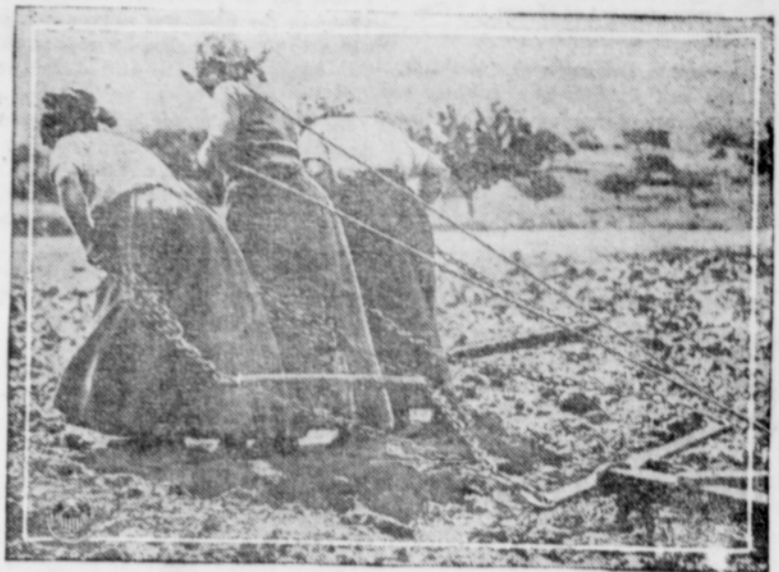

Cholera Morbus
This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Enyeart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

HEROIC WOMEN OF FRANCE

Dr. Alonzo Taylor says: "My words are not powerful enough to do even scanty justice to the most heroic figure in the modern world, and of ages past—the woman of France." In this time of war agriculture is left absolutely to the women. Not only this, they have stepped into the place of the work animals. The women of France must be enabled to hold up the morale of the French soldier until next spring. Does it lie within the heart of the American people to preserve and hold to every convenience of life at the expense of adding an additional burden to this noble womanhood? This is the exact question involved in our substitution of other cereals in place of wheat.

TWENTY STEERS BRING ABOVE $100 EACH

J. C. and Harry Porter sold a bunch of twenty steers to the Nebergall Meat company of Albany Tuesday. The price was 10 1/2 cents and the bunch brought the Messrs. Porter a sum somewhat in excess of two thousand dollars.

Dear girls: Have you got a beautiful pink sweater, or a blue one, or a gauzy lilac affair, or a gorgeous crimson one or a sunny yellow, or were you thinking of knitting one? And do you know that there isn't wool enough for socks for our soldiers? And that wool for one pair of socks costs $1.70? Every time you knit yourself a sweater you take the socks from two men who are fighting for you and your country.

O. A. C. reports that the prune aphid which has been doing serious injury to the foliage has now attacked the fruit—a very unusual situation. It seems to be a sort of pro-Hun aphid that is on the job this year.

In the leaflet addressed to the retail merchants of the country, giving "Seven Ways to Help the United States Food Administration," newspaper advertising is put first.

W. H. Robertson went to Eugene Tuesday in response to a call from the postoffice there. It is understood that there is a strong prospect that Mr. Robertson will give up his place as carrier on Halsey route No. 1 to take a position in the Eugene postoffice.

CROWN OF SALEM BUYS LOCAL POOL OF WOOL

A wool pool formed by Messrs. Bowman and Kizer, living south of Halsey, was sold here Tuesday to Clifford Brown of Salem, who offered 60 cents for the coarse product and 65 cents for the medium. The pool includes the clips of a number of local sheep and aggregates about two thousand fleeces. It is to be delivered Monday.

A party of Halsey fishermen—Will Kirk, Eldon Cross and Cla e and Aley Smith—motored for thirty-five miles up the Calapooya Saturday in quest of trout, returning Sunday. They found the mountain roads pretty rough, but otherwise the trip was thoroughly enjoyable, and the catch of trout, many of which were fine specimens, totaled 191.

Kill the Canada thistle with gasoline or distillate. At least two Halsey farmers have demonstrated the efficacy of this method of destroying the pest. They cut old plants off about two inches below the surface and pour about a gill of the fluid on the root. Young plants may be killed without cutting off the tops. It has been demonstrated beyond question by these farmers that a farm may be completely detested by a persistent adherence to these instructions.
