Miss Mary Smith was an Albany caller Monday.

Will Corcoran is working at the Kirk hay warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. James Drinkard drove to Eugene Sunday.

Mrs. O. M. Miller and Dale returned from Cottage Grove Tuesday.

The Warmoth dwellings has been rented to the Oren Frum family.

Rev. W. O. Benthin, field agent for Albany College, was in town Tuesday.

Geo. Marksbury of Cottage Grove had business in Halsey the first of the week.

Miss Lola Gresham has been visiting for several days in the A. H. Quimby home.

Miss Merle Pike was a passenger to Veneta Wednesday, where she will remain a few days.

Miss Irma Green of Creswell has been the guest of Miss Amy Porter since the 4th of July.

Mrs. G. S. Hayes and her mother, Mrs. Southern, were Harrisburg visitors Wednesday.

Sidney Caldwell is stationed at Ft. Taylor in Kentucky, where he is enlisted in a field artillery company.

Miss Lillian Sneed, who now holds a position in Portland, spent the week-end at her home in this city.

Allan T. Clark, representing the Lewiston Milling company of Portland, was in this vicinity Tuesday buying hay.

Mrs. W. H. Kirk, returned Sunday evening, after having spent the 4th with her husband, who is stationed at Vancouver.

James Green returned to Creswell the first of the week, after a several weeks visit with friends in Brownsville and Halsey.

We make a specialty of friendship, engagement and wedding rings. F. M. French & Son, Jewelers and Engravers, Albany.

Mr. Ray and family motored up from Dallas Sunday for a little visit in the L. Boyd home. Mr. Ray is Mrs. Boyd's brother.

Mrs. N. Ward and little daughter Virginia, from Goldendale, Wash., is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Southern, east of town.

Mrs. C. G. Gulliford and children came up from Portland Saturday and spent the week-end at the home of her brother, W. L. Norton. Mr. Gulliford is still working on his ranch east of town.

Raymond Southern, who has been attending officers' training camp in California for some time past, arrived in Halsey Saturday for a short visit at his home east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bond of Corvallis were visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Moore, at the old home northeast of town the last of the week.

T. J. Dannen, "third trick" operator at the local S. P. station, is taking a week's layoff. His place is being filled by Miss Moeckli, who arrived Tuesday from Newberg.

Spending money to save money is a paradox, but a little money spent for immediate dental repairs oftentimes saves many dollars, which would be necessary later. Dr. E. Ringhofer, Brownsville, Oregon.

A happy reunion dinner was a feature last Sunday at the W. F. White home, the out of town guests being S. M. Ray, wife and daughter Velma, from Dallas, Ira Ray, wife and daughter Goldie, from Ashwood, Jefferson county, and Lloyd Pickard, wife and daughter Roberta, from Eugene.

A bunch of Rowland young people spent an enjoyable 4th at Lost Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Huff chaperoned the picnic. Those who went are Misses Hazel and Ethel Quimby, Frances Spurlin, Abbie Long and Hazel Schick, and Messrs. Jack and Jim Green, Beryl, Ed and Meredith Kizer, Paul Bierley, Clarence Long, Kenneth Pence, Clarence Waggener, Cecil Quimby and Adrian Rice. They went in wagons and especially tell about the splendid "cats."

Mrs. Amos Setters of Washuena, Wash., arrived Saturday and was a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Kirk, until Wednesday. The Kirk family, accompanied by Mrs. Setters, together with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davidson, George Frum and family, Mrs. Josie Smith and daughter Mary, E. Marsters and wife and W. A. Carey and family, attended the funeral of Lieutenant Raymond Templeton, which was held in the Presbyterian church at Brownsville July 7. Lieutenant Templeton was a cousin of Mrs. Setters, Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Frum and an old time friend of the Marsters Carey and Davidson families. The death of Lieutenant Templeton brings to Brownsville its first gold star. The Lebanon home guard gave the military honors and immediately after left to attend a funeral at home.

Doing Good

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John P. Jantzen, Delmar, Sask., says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."

Kirk Sells to Frum

A deal was closed this morning by which Frank Kirk sells his hay, grain and feed business to O. W. Frum, who takes immediate possession.

Home Guard Notes

The Home Guards met in regular drill last Monday evening.

Owing to the busy season, the attendance was rather small. All who can possibly attend are urged to do so in order that the company be kept up.

On July 4th a battalion of the Home Guard companies of the county, consisting of Albany, Lebanon, Seio and Halsey, was formed with Willard R. Marks of Albany acting major.

Friday evening, July 12, a mass meeting of the Guard members will be held at the First Presbyterian church in Albany. All who can possibly attend are urged to do so, especially those within the draft. Col. John B. Hibbard, of the State Guard organization, will be the principal speaker.

Regular drill next Monday evening, 8:30. All come if possible.

Cause of Despondency

Despondency is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. These tablets strengthen the digestion and move the bowels.

EICHHORNS LEAD COMMUNITY SINGING

Chautauquas to Hear Pioneers in Great Movement That is Sweeping the Country.

The community singing movement that is sweeping the land is bringing in reports from every part of the country of immense gatherings. The first National Community Sing Day was celebrated in Washington last December and thousands were turned away from the great Auditorium. In Pittsburgh over 10,000 people attended their first community sing and this has been repeated in practically every large city of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Eichhorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Eichhorn have been pioneers in the "community sing idea" and are among the best-known leaders of public singing in the country. Their appearance at Chautauqua on the fifth day will be one of the joyous events of the week.

Christian Church Notes

Sunday morning the new officers and teachers took their places for the coming year. The treasurer reported the finances in a very healthy condition.

Mr. Petelle preached in the morning upon "My Church" and in the evening on "Sin."

The regular Endeavor meeting was led by the new president, Joy Forester, and a very profitable hour was spent in discussing the use and development of one's talents.

C. W. B. M. met Tuesday with Mrs. W. L. Wells. Mrs. George Taylor led a very interesting meeting, the first one in the new year.

Mrs. Robertson and Donna are back, after a few weeks spent in Eugene.

Mrs. Cross, who is in town for a few days, was also with us Sunday.

The regular services are announced for next Sunday, and you are most earnestly invited to attend. Rev. Harriman will preach both morning and evening.

Church Reporter.

Mrs. W. H. Kirk left on the noon train today for Portland.

Don't Hesitate to Ask Questions

Are you doing enough driving with lights off to keep your battery properly charged?

Are you replacing the evaporation, which is always going on, by a proper amount of distilled water?

Are you sure current isn't being lost daily by some defect in wiring or connections?

Does current flow freely?

If you'll stop the next time you see our service sign, we'll be glad to answer as many questions as you can find time to ask.

And don't forget to include an inquiry about the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.
