

The Halsey Enterprise
An Independent Newspaper.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

D. H. TALMADGE, EDITOR

Entered as second-class matter October 3, 1912, at the post office at Halsey, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Devoted to the material upbuilding of Halsey and surrounding country and Linn county generally. Subscription rate $1.50 per year in advance.

Soon or late good and not evil must triumph.

Judge Kelly politely refuses to run for the supreme judgeship on the democratic ticket.

The wet-weather prophet is having a hard summer. The weather does not seem to agree with him.

Print paper has taken another jump in price. These are trying times for the newspaper publisher.

One thing is pretty certain—Governor Withycombe will not be defeated for re-election by calling him a "boss doctor."

The government cut-up plant at Vancouver will ship 600 cars of airplane fir per month. That is making the fir fly all right.

What with hay coming to town continuously throughout the day, cream and poultry arriving in great quantities, lambs trotting to the yards in bunches of a hundred or more, wool piling up on the depot platform, not to mention the steady trade at the stores, one has little difficulty in understanding why the Halsey district is famous in shipping circles.

M. E. Church Notes

Sunday school lesson July 21: The Place of Prayer in the Christian Life. "Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in our time of need."—Heb. 4:16.

Let us remember our places of duty when Sunday morning comes, as teachers and students in the study of God's Holy Word.

Harold Stevenson of the Linn Drug Co. at Eugene, was home visiting his parents last Sunday and was on hand for Sunday school. Harold is teaching a S. S. class and is president of the Epworth League in the Eugene church.

Rev. and Mrs. Bond from Eugene were present at the morning service as guests of Mrs. Jesse H. Bond and Mrs. M. J. Quick.

The King's Herald had an enjoyable meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Amy Porter. Miss Erma Green of Creswell, one of our former dependable little Heralds, has been visiting Amy for the past two weeks.

On Sunday evening, as was the order in many other churches, the 129th anniversary of the independence of France was commemorated in a fitting manner. Rex W. Davis of the Four Minute Men's organization of Harrisburg gave an interesting address on French history and the ties that have brought them in such close friendship with the U. S. Bro. Cain gave some fitting remarks, besides presenting a resolution of congratulations before the standing audience, which will be presented with thousands of other public expressions to the French people. Miss Gertrude Porter sang the French Marseillaise in her clear, sweet voice.

Ten lively chaps from Brownsville, working for Lloyd Hillary, whose hay-baler has been in operation on the George Frum place this week, blew in to see the editor Tuesday evening while a break in the baler was being repaired, and their visit made the old man forget the heat. In the party were Bill Templeton, Herb. and George Hale, Tob Smith, George Cox, John and Bob Putnam, Frank Crabtree, John Holtron and Lloyd Hillary.
