The latest sugar and flour regulations: The government has taken entire charge of the distribution of sugar. Each individual is entitled to 3 lbs. of sugar per month outside of the requirements for canning purposes. Sugar for general household purposes is to be bought in 2 lb. lots by families living in town and in 5 lb. lots by families living in the country. Sugar for canning purposes must be purchased in 25 lb. lots. The first 25 lb. lot can be purchased by signing up a sugar certificate with the grocer, and for any additional 25 lb. lot a permit must be obtained from the county food administrator. People living in town can purchase one sack of flour (49 lbs.) at a time, provided they purchase an equal quantity of substitutes with it. People living in the country can buy two sacks of flour (98 lbs.) provided they buy an equal amount of substitutes with the flour. Those operating cook shacks in connection with threshing outfits and hay-balers can obtain special permits for sugar and flour by writing to the county food administrator.

Doing Good

Few medicines have met with more favor or accomplished more good than Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. John F. Jantzen, Delmeny, Sask., says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy myself and in my family, and can recommend it as being an exceptionally fine preparation."

KEEP FARM RECORDS TO SHOW ACTIVITIES

Cash Accounts, Properly Assembled, Are of Importance.

Often Overlooked Projects Produce Nearly as Much Money as Obviously Important—Carefully Avoid Sudden Changes.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

When a record is kept of all the money taken in and spent on the farm at the close of the business year the cash accounts can be assembled under headings that will show exactly what branch of the farm activities produced the dollars and what each required in the way of cash expenditure to keep going. Some farmers are apt to judge of the importance of the various farm projects by the time it takes to put them through. To such, a complete cash record for a year, properly assembled, will be an eye-opener. Often seemingly unimportant things on the farm, such as the flock of poultry, produce nearly as much net cash as the obviously important. The year's cash summary helps the farmer to get a better perspective of these things.

In using such records as an aid to future plans, hasty conclusions should not be drawn, nor should snap judgments be taken. The fact that the hog or the corn crop brought in the most net money last year is no reason for assuming that all the activities of the farm henceforth should be devoted to the sole purpose of hog or corn raising. It may be that the keeping of cows was partly responsible for making the hogs so productive of net cash, or that the growing of wheat, clover, or other crops in rotation with corn made the latter crop much more profitable than it would have been if grown alone. Similar conditions will be met with on all farms, and therefore no sudden changes should be made on the basis of what a few accounts may show.

On the other hand, a single year's figures will occasionally indicate that something is radically wrong; will show where the net expenses of one farm enterprise is a great drain on the net cash returns made by the others. All phases of such an enterprise should be carefully studied and unless the losses can be assigned to some reason, such as a bad season, temporarily adverse market conditions, epidemics, or similar unusual conditions, it may often be dropped with profit.

Comparison of the annual figures year by year is no other source of profit from the use of accounts, since by such comparison a true perspective and insight into the makeup of the business is gained.

HOW FARMERS GET HELP

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In every agricultural district there are farmers who have succeeded in holding their employees in spite of all the attractions offered by other industries. These farmers have usually employed married men and have furnished them with a small but comfortable house. Moreover, the laborers have enjoyed the privilege of raising a small garden and a few pigs and chickens. —Clarence Ousley, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

Cause of Despondency

Despondency is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. These tablets strengthen the digestion and move the bowels.

Don't Hesitate to Ask Questions

Are you doing enough driving with lights off to keep your battery properly charged?

Are you replacing the evaporation, which is always going on, by a proper amount of distilled water?

Are you sure current isn't being lost daily by some defect in wiring or connections?

Does current flow freely?

If you'll stop the next time you see our service sign, we'll be glad to answer as many questions as you can find time to ask.

And don't forget to include an inquiry about the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

M. E. Church Notes

Sunday school topic July 28: The Place of Law in Christian Living. "If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments." —John 14:15.

Miss Marie Sneed of class No. 2 is spending her vacation at Salem and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Miller, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Young, and Mrs. Brandon, left last Friday by auto for a short visit with friends at Portland and other points. They visited the Schrolls at Forest Grove.

Balf Bond and mother, with Mrs. D. Taylor and Lawrence, left Saturday to visit Mona and Portland friends.

The Epworth League institute is in session at Jefferson this week. Next Sunday a number of our Leaguers will take their lunches and go by auto to spend the day. Mrs. Mornhinweg is superintending the lunch and Miss Lela Bond is marshaling the crowd together. It will all be done in apple pie order and our young people should avail themselves of this opportunity to get enthused on new things in League work.

We are glad to welcome to our midst Mr. and Mrs. Chester Logue, who have moved to our city and were present at the various services last Sunday.

The Enterprise for printing.

Christian Church Notes

Mr. Harriman was with us Sunday, July 21, and preached in the morning on the topic: "Should a Christian Go to Church?" In the evening he discussed the influence of Christianity upon the world.

Miss Marie Hofflich is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lyle Chance.

The Turner convention awarded the Halsey C. W. B. M. a copy of "Women Workers of the Orient," by Margaret Burton. This is because the society is one of the Honor Roll.

Misses Faye and Hortense Bennett were with us Sunday evening in Endeavor. The topic was "Favorite Psalms," and Dorothy Miller led the meeting. An executive meeting was announced for Tuesday evening, at the church.

Miss Mabel Clausen is spending the week with Dorothy Miller. She has a very clear and pleasing soprano voice, and with her friend sang "As Thirsts the Hart" and "In the Hour of Trial" at the evening services.

Two of our boys, Albin Soderstrom and Alfred Savage, left Sunday in the draft. We shall miss them and will remember them while they are in the service of our country.
