Stomach and Liver Troubles No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them an end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.

To Albany and Back in 64 Minutes

That Rev. Cain might not fail to keep his appointment to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Greenhalgh Tuesday Mary Smith drove a Maxwell car to Albany and back in one hour and 4 minutes.

The distance covered was very close to 40 miles, over a road not entirely perfect.

Mr. Cain reached Albany from Summit between 12 and 1 o'clock to find that he was too late to catch the southbound train. He telephoned for an auto. He reached Halsey in time to keep his appointment and with four minutes to spare.

M. E. Church Notes

Sunday school lesson Aug. 4: Getting a and Using Needed Strength. "The path of the righteous is as the dawning light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."—Prov. 4:18.

We are sorry to record the loss of Mrs. Ollie Miller, teacher of the Philatheas, who has gone to Portland, and Dale to Cottage Grove.

The W. F. M. S. will meet on Friday p. m. at the country home of Mrs. Sidney Smith. Mrs. B. M. Miller is the leader. All ladies wishing to attend will please meet at the church at 2 o'clock, where autos will be provided.

The Official Board will meet at the church on next Saturday at 8 p. m. All members are requested to attend.

We shall miss very much, with the bereaved friends, our friend, Sunday school member, ladies' aid and faithful church attendant, Mrs. Mary A. Greenhalgh. Her heart and hand was always open to the many calls for service. She was always on hand to do her part. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Christian Church Notes

In the absence of Mr. Robertson, Mr. White acted as superintendent at Sunday school. Joyce Forester presented the missionary work. At the close of the hour Dorothy Miller gave a talk on our duty to the soldiers.

Mr. Harriman preached upon the "Law of Love" and the "Second Coming of Christ." In the morning Mabel Clausen and Dorothy Miller sang "Under His Wings."

Mrs. Cummings and her friend Miss Nina Bending were with us Sunday, as was also Goldie Wells. She has been preaching at Harrisburg alternate Sundays.

The Christian Endeavor meeting was led by Mr. Harriman. The topic was "Favorite Proverbs" and many helpful lessons were pointed out.

"So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

FOOD ADMINISTRATION CREDO

By willing service of a free people to do these things:
To feed the Allies that they may continue to fight.
To feed the hungry in Belgium and other lands that they may continue to live.
To feed our own soldiers overseas that they may want nothing.
To keep prices steady and the flow of distribution even that the poor at home may be fed.
To make everyone's effort count its utmost for winning the war for freedom.

Dusting for Brown Rot.

Dusting peaches through the season for brown rot and scab is fully as effective and much quicker than spraying. Two applications are necessary in a dry season; three if rainy. The last application should be made about three weeks before picking.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR MAKING HAY

Three Men and Two Horses Is Most Economical Crew for Gathering Up Crop.

HAULING DONE IN AFTERNOON

Amount That Can Be Handled Under Conditions Given Will Be From 40 to 60 Acres, Much Depending Upon the Yield.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

On many farms haymaking is carried on in a more or less haphazard manner, resulting in a loss of time, as now and then a part of the crew is idle. With small crews there is usually less loss of time than with larger crews, where some are mowing and raking, loading and hauling, and others working at the barn all of the time.

The smallest economical crew for bringing hay from the field and putting it into the barn is the three-man and two-horse crew. In the East, the common practice is to load the wagon with hand forks and unload it with the horse fork or sling. This arrangement allows two men to pitch on the load and one man to build the load on the wagon and drive the team. When the load is on, all three men go to the barn to unload. At the barn one man works in the mow, one sticks the hay fork on the wagon, and the third man drives the team on the rope. No time is lost, except that lost by the two pitchers in traveling between the barn and the field. In the East the average distance between these points is a quarter of a mile or less.

Custom in East. On most average-sized farms in the East the general custom is to haul hay in the afternoon only. In the forenoon, one man mows enough hay in about four hours, starting after the dew is almost gone, for half a day's hauling. Three to five acres, yielding 1.5 tons to the acre, is about all the ordinary three-man crew can handle.

The second man rakes every morning, at the beginning of the haying season, the hay that was mowed the day before. In the forenoon the third man does not work at haying at all, but is free to do other farm work, such as plowing corn, etc.

Let us see what the effect will be on the size of the crew if the hay is not cut until well past "full bloom," the stage of maturity at which hay (timothy, for example) must be cut if choice or "ten green" hay is to be secured.

Hay cut when past full bloom cures quite rapidly if the weather is favorable, and hay mowed in the forenoon can be put into the barn in the afternoon. This arrangement requires an extra man and two extra horses to rake the hay. To facilitate matters, the side-delivery rake should be used, so that loading can be started as soon as the rake has made one round. The fourth man will usually finish raking by three or four o'clock in the afternoon, and can help load during the remainder of the day. However, three men pitching onto one wagon is not ordinarily a very economical arrangement.

Moving in the Afternoon.

Now let us suppose that it is decided to do the moving in the afternoon as well as the raking, and see how this arrangement affects the size of the crew. Such a method requires another additional man or team, making a crew of five men working in the hay field in the afternoon only. There will be one man mowing, one raking the hay mowed the day before, and three men bringing hay from the field and putting it into the barn. Two more horses will also be required with this method, making a total of six, yet this larger crew will handle no more hay per day than the three-man crew above described.

The amount of hay that can be handled under these conditions will be from 40 to 60 acres, depending upon the yield. If the hay loader is used, more hay can be handled per day. The two pitchers work on the wagon building the load, and the third man drives the team.

Don't Hesitate to Ask Questions

Are you doing enough driving with lights off to keep your battery properly charged?
Are you replacing the evaporation, which is always going on, by a proper amount of distilled water?
Are you sure current isn't being lost daily by some defect in wiring or connections?
Does current flow freely?
If you'll stop the next time you see our service sign, we'll be glad to answer as many questions as you can find time to ask.
And don't forget to include an inquiry about the Still Better Willard with Threaded Rubber Insulation.
