The lecture on India given at the Methodist church Sunday night by Miss Nettie Spencer, a world traveler and a Chautauqua speaker of some note, was thoroughly enjoyed by those who heard it. Miss Spencer is perfectly conversant with her subject and possesses the somewhat rare faculty of telling worth while things in an interesting way.

Editorial

We're selling satisfaction. You buy shoes because they meet your ideas of style, price and quality. But you are entitled to more than that, and you get it here. "Satisfaction" is a part of every sale we make.

If the shoes do not make good, we will—gladly, cheerfully.

It's a part of our friendly service—a part we think you'll appreciate. Thank you!

The tent meetings which began in this city Sunday night under the auspices of the Adventist church are being only moderately well attended owing to the busy season on the farms and the absence of so many people on summer outings. Mr. Carey is an eloquent and sincere speaker and his message is one not unworthy of the attention of thinking people, and Messrs. Carman and Huetter are efficient helpers. The singing is excellent. It is understood that the meetings will continue for several weeks.

The soldiers in France need more books. A request comes today to the Halsey Public Library from the American Library Association's headquarters in Washington that this community make a special effort to assist in meeting this need. New novels and good western stories, whether new or old, are most needed. Books by Zane Grey, Rex Beach, Jack London, Ralph Connor, Owen Wister and O. Henry are very popular. The communication from Washington states that more than 600,000 books have been sent overseas. The supply is nearly exhausted and several hundred thousand more will be needed soon. Leave your gifts to the boys over there at the Halsey postoffice.

WORTH A CHANCE.

The small boy stood at the garden gate and howled and howled and howled. A passing old lady paused beside him. "What's the matter, little man?" she asked in a kindly voice. "O-o-oh!" wailed the youngster. "Pa and ma won't take me to the pictures tonight." "But don't make such a noise," said the dame admonishingly. "Do they ever take you when you cry like that?" "S-sometimes they do, an'-an' sometimes they d-d-don't," bellowed the boy. "But it ain't no trouble to yell!"—London Opinion.

Advice to Mothers.

She was a very careful woman and when she noticed that the little boy was rather indifferent as to his personal appearance it worried her very much. "Your conduct troubles me very much," she said. "Now tell me how I can get you to wash your face regularly?" "That's easy, ma," the boy replied. "Just let me go in swimming every day."

POSTED.

"Seeing the wataah weiminds me that I can tell you how much falls ovah Niagara Falls, to a gallon." "How much?" "Four quarts, bah Jove."

Playing Safe.

There was a man who feared the show That trivial error makes. He never did a thing, and so Avoided all mistakes.

Penalty of Lying.

"Sedentary work," said the college lecturer, "tends to lessen the endurance." "In other words," butted in the smart student, "the more one sits the less one can stand." "Exactly," retorted the lecturer; "and if one lies a great deal one's standing is lost completely."—London Tit-Bits.

He Was Up-to-Date.

Little Johnnie, aged seven, was being admonished by his father for fighting with the boy next door. "I never got into a fight when I was a boy," said his parent. "I know, dad," said Johnnie; "but these are war times."—People's Home Journal.

Almost Unkind.

"You must try to keep your temper when the weather gets hot." "And yet," mused Miss Cayenne, "it does seem to irritate everybody so when one person manages to seem perfectly cool and comfortable on a summer day."

Bad Start.

"How did your husband's gardening turn out?" "Not well so far," responded the serious woman. "The outdoor work gave him such an appetite that he ate the potatoes instead of planting them."

ONE THING THEY MUST LEARN.

"Why do you think Slobber's wife was a chorus girl once?" "Cause she always wears a happy smile."

Brain Fag.

The "loafer" now is out of date. Let's do the best we can From day to day to stimulate The tired business man.

Truth Crushing.

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again," said the poetry quoter. "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum; "but sometimes she gets up so late that in important trah of thought has gone in without her."

Only Way.

"My wife has never once answered me back or wanted her own way." "How on earth did you manage to get a wife like that?" "Easily done. I never married."

25,000 Women Wanted

To enroll in the United States Student Nurse Reserve and hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

The war is creating an unprecedented demand for trained nurses. Only those who have taken the full training course are eligible for service with our forces overseas. These nurses are being drawn largely from our hospitals at home. Their places must be filled by student nurses enrolled for the full training course of from two to three years. Every young woman who enrolls in the United States Student Nurse Reserve is releasing a nurse for service at the front and swelling the home army which we must rely on to act as our second line of hospital defense. Upon the health of the American people will depend the spirit of their fighting forces.

Mrs. C. E. Gulliford is in charge of the Halsey recruiting station and will give full information to all interested.

DOUBLE OF CZAR'S DAUGHTER

Mrs. Ariadne Roomanov, wife of Kerensky's secretary, experienced an unusual surprise when she arrived in Tokyo. She is the double of Tatiana, daughter of the former czar, who was reported on her way to America. Mrs. Roomanov was offered an entire wing of the imperial palace at Tokyo for her accommodation while in the Japanese capital. It being the belief that she really was the daughter of the czar.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION CREDO

By willing service of a free people to do these things:
To feed the Allies that they may continue to fight.
To feed the hungry in Belgium and other lands that they may continue to live.
To feed our own soldiers overseas that they may want nothing.
To keep prices steady and the flow of distribution even that the poor at home may be fed.
To make everyone's effort count its utmost for winning the war for freedom.

FOOD CONTROL IN AMERICA IS OF AND FOR THE PEOPLE

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.

Just ez de buckwheat cake got fop over on his face, Br'er Bacon-rin' dance 'roun' en say, sezee:—"One good tu'n desaves en nuth'er." sezee—Meanin' dat ef de sojer boys go en do de fightin' fer us, de leas' we ails kin do is ter sen' 'em all de wheat—en eat buckwheat instid. Co'n meal, rye en barley flour fer us will he'p a lot too.

Don't Hesitate to Ask Questions

Are you doing enough driving with lights off to keep your battery properly charged?

Are you replacing the evaporation, which is always going on, by a proper amount of distilled water?

Are you sure current isn't being lost daily by some defect in wiring or connections?

Does current flow freely?

If you'll stop the next time you see our service sign, we'll be glad to answer as many questions as you can find time to ask.

And don't forget to include an inquiry about the Still Better Wallrod with Threaded Rubber Insulation.
