MONSTROUS IDEA IN GERMAN MIND

Treachery, Murder, Barbarity, Anything, Praiseworthy if for Prussia's Gain.

Abominable System That Must Be Overthrown if the World is to Be Worth Living In, Regardless of the Cost.

This I have seen. I could not believe it unless I had seen it through and through. For several weeks I lived with it; I went all about it and back of it; inside and out of it was shown to me—until finally I came to realize that the incredible was true. It is monstrous, it is unthinkable, but it exists. It is the Prussian system.—F. C. Walcott.

At a conference of field men of the United States food administration held in Washington, F. C. Walcott pictured conditions as he had found them in the countries invaded by German arms. Mr. Walcott served with Mr. Hoover on the Belgium relief commission when this nation was attempting to feed the starving civilian population of Belgium, Poland and northern France. In his address he had pictured such conditions as he said he could not believe unless he had seen the situation through and through, and had lived with it for weeks. He showed these terrible conditions to be the result of deliberate plans on the part of official Germany, and in summing up he said:

"Such is the German mind as it was disclosed to me in several weeks' contact with officers of the staff. Treaties are scraps of paper, if they hinder German aims. Treachery is condoned and praised, if it falls in with German interest. Men, lands, countries are German prizes. Populations are to be destroyed or enslaved so Germany may gain. Women are Germany's prey, children are spells of war. God gave Germany the Hohenzollern and together they are destined to rule Europe and, eventually, the world—thus rears the kaiser.

"Coolly, deliberately, officers of the German staff, permeated by this monstrous philosophy, discuss the denationalization of peoples, the destruction of nations, the undoing of other civilizations, for Germany's account.

"In all the world such a thing has never been. The human mind has

A BOX FROM HOME

Drawn by GEAR WILLIAMS, Division of Pictorial Publicity.

Food savings of millions of Americans during our first year of war enabled this government to send enormous food shipments abroad for our fighting forces and the Allied nations. Our savings in cereals—out of a short crop—amounted to 154,900,000 bushels; all of which was shipped to Europe. We increased our meat and fat shipments 844,600,000 pounds. This was America's "box from home" to our army abroad and the civilians and military forces of the Allied nations.

never conceived the idea. Even barbarians, the thing would be incredible. The mind can scarcely grasp the fact that these things are proposed and done by a modern government professedly a Christian government in the family of civilized nations.

"This system has got to be rooted out. If it takes everything in the world, if it takes everyone of us, this abomination must be overthrown. It must be ended or the world is not worth living in. No matter how long it takes, no matter how much it costs, we must endure to the end with organized France, with imperiled Britain, with shattered Belgium, with shaken Russia.

"We must hope that Germany will have a new birth as Russia is being reborn. We must pray, as we fight against the evil that is in Germany, that the good which is in Germany may somehow prevail. We must trust that in the end a Germany really great with the strength of a wonderful race may find its place as one of the brotherhood of nations in the new world that is to be.

"The responsibility of success or failure rests now upon our shoulders; the eyes of the world are anxiously watching us. Are we going to be able to rise to the emergency, throw off our inefficiency, and prove that democracy is safe for the world?"

In the above statement Mr. Walcott has described a condition that must be changed if America, if the world, is to remain a "fit place to live in." And the only way by which this change can be effected is the defeat of German arms in this war. Nothing good, nothing but evil, can come out of Germany, so long as the German people are controlled by a military autocracy, and the German people cannot be made to realize this until this autocracy is crushed. The spirit of militarism that has made of the Germans a robber and a murderer nation must be utterly crushed if the world is to remain free, and to accomplish this those of us who cannot fight in France must lend our support to our men who are fighting for us.

Christian Church Notes

Mrs. Miller and Joyce Forster acted as supply teachers at Sunday school.

Ralph Savage was with us Sunday—probably his last with us for some time, since he leaves for Camp Lewis Saturday.

One of our girls, Elva Estes, was married Wednesday afternoon. Her husband is a university man, Mr. Arlo B. Bristow. They plan to spend the winter in a southern university, taking post-graduate work.

Owing to the serious illness of his mother Bro. Leavitt was unable to be with us Sunday.

Grace Nelson was leader at Endeavor Sunday evening. At this meeting we were able to learn much of the missionary work in this country. Joyce Forster sang "God is My Refuge," set to a Rubenstein melody. Her voice is a very clear and sweet soprano, and we look forward to hearing her again.

Nothing Else Like it in Halsey

There has never been anything in Halsey with the INSTANT action of simple buckwheat bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. One SPOON-FULL flushes the ENTIRE bowel tract so completely it relieves ANY CASE sour stomach, gas or constipation and prevents appendicitis. The INSTANT, pleasant action of Adler-ika surprises both doctors and patients. L. E. Walton, druggist.

DEDUCTION.

"There are 14,000 oysters of full size in a ton."
"Then a boarding house stew must be one-fourteen-thousandth part of a ton."

Biblical Lore.
Samson was a tall, tall man,
And so was old Goliath,
But Ananias, so they say,
Was the tallest liar.

Its Effect.
"Mayme said if she had a soldier lover she would make him carry her picture in his pocket and it might stop a bullet aimed at his heart."
"It would be a life-saver all right. Her picture is enough to give a bullet shell shock."

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.
