

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

Entered as second-class matter October 3, 1912, at the post office at Halsey, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Devoted to the material upbuilding of Halsey and surrounding country and Linn county generally. Subscription rate $1.50 per year in advance.

Election Results

A light vote and slow returns characterized the election Tuesday.

In Halsey the vote on the road bond issue, which approximates closely to the total vote, was as follows: West Halsey—For, 102; against, 44. East Halsey, For, 61; against, 27.

The road bond issue seems to have won in the county by a substantial margin.

In the state all the measures carried except the one creating the office of lieutenant governor.

NOT GOOD JUDGE OF POETRY

One Explanation for Napoleon's Peculiar Worship at Shrine of Second-Rate Writer of Verse.

The curious partiality which Napoleon showed for the poems of Ossian, particularly "Temora," puzzled his contemporaries, as it since has his biographers, says the Christian Science Monitor. It is related that he carried a beautifully bound copy of Ossian with him to Egypt, and that on being read passages of the Odyssey by the poet Arnaut, while on board ship, he contemptuously exclaimed: "You call that sublime! What a difference between your Homer and my Ossian," and, reading some passages from "Temora," he said, "This is grand, and sentimental and sublime! Ossian is a poet, Homer mere drivel." Napoleon's preference for the works of the mystery poet of the North continued throughout his life. He was reading Ossian in 1797, and a well-thumbed copy was among his books at St. Helena. There have been many explanations given for so strange a literary preference. The Countess de Montholon unkindly remarks that Napoleon was notoriously deficient in his sense of rhythm and that therefore poetry which was not poetry at all as far as form went, for he read Ossian in French prose, suited him very nicely.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save your life.

The one safe rule for the average person is to expect and prepare to wear glasses for reading not far from the age of forty. There are no unsightly lines in Kryptok lenses and they aid the eye and conserve its efficiency.

Chronic Constipation

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.
