Halsey News Items

Ben H. Goble from Brownsville, made a business trip to Halsey yesterday in the interest of the Brownsville cannery.

Mrs. Bloom from Albany and her two grand daughters from Portland, came Sunday for a visit with Mrs. J. M. Porter. They left Tuesday.

J. A. McCappin, wife and son from Santa Rosa, Calif. are here visiting his aunt Mrs. M. V. Fox. He reports that the dry weather has shortened the crops down there considerably. He thinks he likes Halsey quite well for his first visit.

Eldon Cross and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Will Kirk went to Cascadia last week and returned Sunday.

Dr. H. Garnjobst was called to Seattle last Thursday on account of the illness of his youngest son, Mrs. Garnjobst having gone there the week before to place the child under the treatment of a specialist.

E. G. Ward and Frank Kirk were Albany callers yesterday.

Miss Hazel Straley with some Brownsville friends went to Waterloo last Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Koontz and family will leave Sunday for an extended vacation at Newport.

Mrs. L. E. Walton, and son, James Rector, went to Seaside last Thursday on a vacation.

Mr. Mayberry shipped a car of cattle and a car of sheep to Portland yesterday.

W. A. Templeton, of Brownsville was in Halsey last Saturday. Mr. Templeton is an old pioneer of these parts.

Fred True arrived in town the first of the week from his farm in Montana and is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. True.

B. M. Bond of the Halsey State Bank left Monday for a two-weeks outing. F. M. Maxwell is acting cashier during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Perryman, of Tacoma, Wash., are visiting with their cousins, Bessie and Lela Bond and E. E. Gourley.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wesley and son Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gardner and Mrs. Walters motored to Cascadia Sunday, where they spent the day enjoying the scenery and wading in the river, receiving a few blisters that needed the aid of "cold cream" to relieve them.

Mrs. Albert Waggener suffered a paralytic stroke one day last week. She is completely paralyzed in one arm, and her right limb is badly affected; it also interferes with her speech; she is improving slightly.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft took a class of five to Brownsville Tuesday evening and had them ride the goat. They were Mr. and Mrs. Will Kirk, Mrs. Mornhinweg, Mrs. Corcoran, and Jess Cross.

The C. E. met in business session and social at the house of Mrs. Edith Robnett last week. We were so busy that we didn't get the item in time for the last issue. Games were played on the lawn and ice cream and cake were served, and a good time in general was enjoyed.

The Brownsville Cannery wants your blackberries, plums, prunes, and other fruits. These fruits are commanding good prices and they'll take all you bring.

The body of Wm. Bowers, arrived here Monday noon accompanied by his brother, Harry Bowers. He had been in a sanitarium in Twin Butte, Cherokee, Iowa. Interment took place in the Brownsville cemetery. He was a brother of Ed Bowers.

Mrs. D. F. Dean and niece, Miss Henrietta Gohlman, of Harrington, Wash., left for Coquille last Friday. C. O. Dryden and family of Oregon City passed thru here on Sunday on their way to Coquille where they will join the Deans and they will camp together on the Banden beach.

L. W. Bverly and wife, who have been on a vacation in the Grants Pass country for the last eight days, returned Monday evening. They report an enjoyable time, altho some of the roads they passed over were not of the best. During the trip they exchanged their old car for a new one, a 90 Overland.
