

The Halsey Enterprise

An Independent Newspaper

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

CHAS. BALLARD, Editor

Entered as second-class matter October 3, 1912, at the post office at Halsey, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Devoted to the material upbuilding of Halsey and surrounding country and Lin county generally. Subscription rate $1.50 per year in advance.

The Halsey Enterprise gives a greater proportion of its space to church news than any other paper in the state, and the Christian church at Halsey is following Mr Stivers' lead and running display advertising.—Brownsville Times.

A Beautiful Woman.

Do you know that a beautiful woman always has a good digestion? If your digestion is faulty, eat lightly of meats, and take an occasional dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen your digestion. Price 25c.

Tax Evaders to be Hunted and Punished.

(Published by request of the Federal government.)

"A special drive to locate merchants and manufacturers who have followed erroneous methods in making their inventories for the taxable years 1917 and 1918—such methods tending to reduce tax liabilities—is about to be made by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, it has been announced.

"In cases of voluntary disclosures before investigation of failure to make proper return and payment, the policy of the bureau will be to forego penalties except where there is intentional evasion of the tax. Where discovery is made by government officers, heavy penalties will apply.

"In some cases inventories have been found to have been taken on the basis of average costs, though it was possible to identify the articles remaining on hand at the inventory period, and so determine their exact cost. In others because of conservative accounting methods, flat percentages have been deducted after determining inventory values. Others use a fixed average, based upon costs of prior years, or fail to include all merchandise to which they have title in their inventory.

"All of these methods, which have the effect of reducing tax liability, are contrary to the regulations of the Bureau and are illustrative of numerous irregularities which have been found.

"A warning issued by the Bureau advises taxpayers who have followed such methods to file correct returns without notice and without investigation. Some taxpayers have voluntarily notified the Bureau of the employment of incorrect methods, and are filing amended returns. It is only fair to these taxpayers, that their competitors who have made similar errors should be located.

Sincere Gratitude.

Mrs William Bell, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."

O. A. C. Notes.

The O A C has attracted many of the young folks from the local high schools and from the surrounding neighborhoods.

All of the 1916 class are continuing their education, three of the five at the O A C, namely: Harold Stevenson is a junior in pharmacy, carrying a heavy assignment this term to make up for time lost while in the S A T C. He and his nephew, Floyd Keeny, sophomore in pharmacy, have set up a photographic shop in their room and are working up a business among the college students; Clarence Soderstrom is a freshman in civil engineering; Sidney Caldwell is a freshman in electrical engineering. Both men were in the service two years.

Ethel Quinby and Georgia Weber are juniors in home economics. Other students are Pansy Freeman, sophomore in pharmacy; Raymond Southern, junior; Ferris Ward, freshman; Harold Ross, freshman.

The annual homecoming of the college is set for the week end October 25. Every alumnus and former student is urged to come and get a new stock of O A C spirit.

The football game with Stanford on Saturday will be the crowning event but a committee in charge of the program are planning several other events. The Varsity O association will give a dance in the men's gymnasium Saturday night. "Open house" will be kept by all fraternity, sorority and club houses Sunday. A big rally is planned for Friday night and a freshman-sophomore bag rush for Saturday morning.

The Oregon federation of women's clubs held its annual convention in Corvallis last week October 13-16. On Wednesday the delegates inspected the college buildings and were entertained at luncheon by the home economics department. Halsey delegates were Mrs Frank Porter and Mrs George Laubner, A Halsey O A C Student.

Can Now Eat and Sleep In Comfort.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill, has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such a relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."

The Daylight Saving Act Change of Time Effective Sunday, October 26th at 1:00 a. m.

The clocks are to be turned back one hour next Sunday morning at 1 o'clock so as to be able to register time at the regular time as God intended it to be.

It is to be hoped that man will never again undertake to regulate the sun, assuming that he knows more than the Creator of the universe.

We are to have our old time back again even if Congress did have to pass the law over our worthy president's veto.

Apropos of this change of time the S P announces that train No 53 will be held in Portland until it is actual schedule time for it to leave.

Train No 13 will run on its old time to Albany and then gradually lose time until the calendar catches up with it.

Trains Nos 54 and 16 will run north on schedule to Grants Pass and then gradually lose time until the calendar catches up with it.

Shedd Items Gathered From Here And There.

State Senator and Mrs Frank H Porter celebrated their silver wedding at their old home at Shedd lately with the T H C Brassfield family.

B L Haverland of near Shedd, was in Albany last Saturday to visit Mrs Haverland who had undergone a serious operation the day before.

H R Commons claimed the bounty on the pelt of a bobcat at the county clerk's office Monday.

Uncle Sam Houston gave his lecture on Farm Bureau work Monday night.

Items From Brownsville Clipped From The Times.

McCullough & Hadley of Halsey, sold $1200 worth of Alsike clover seed from fifteen acres, and George Maxwell got $400 for the crop from three acres.

Somebody opened Tetzle's corral Sunday and stole or released a couple of heifers that were to have furnished Brownsville with meat the next day, and our butcher had to send to Lebanon for a supply. The thieves or vandals are unknown. The missing cattle have been found, butchered and eaten before they could get away again.

Our Bible Question.

Our Bible question of two weeks ago did not bring out as many answers as we had hoped for, there being only one other answer beside the editor's. We will try you with another one which may be simpler. A single "yes or no" with your name will answer the question, all the we would prefer that you elucidate and give a brief reason for your answer.

After the Israelites had left Egypt to go to the promised land, the people got tired of the manna that the Lord was feeding them and murmured about it.

As a punishment for their murmuring the Lord sent fiery serpents that bit the people and it seems that a bite from one of the serpents meant sure death. The people repented of their murmurings and Moses took counsel of the Lord and the Lord told him to make a serpent of brass and set it upon a pole, and he promised every one that was bitten that if he would LOOK upon the brazen serpent that he would live. See the account in the 21st chapter of Numbers.

Moses did as he was commanded and the snake-bitten Israelites looked and were healed.

Question. If an Israelite was bitten and had NO faith that he would be healed by looking on the brazen serpent, if he did look would he have been healed?

We will welcome answers from any reader of the Enterprise (who believes in the Bible) in Halsey or anywhere else. Preachers, lay members, no members, or even from our exchanges. Some times even editors have opinions on Bible questions.
