THE ARRIVAL OF THAT BOX OF CANDY

is always quite an event; but how the enthusiasm dampens if the confectionery falls short of what the appreciative one has a right to expect. If you send a box of our delicious confections they'll be everything she dreamed of and more. Of course our confectionery is pure, and it surely can not be called high in price.

CLARK'S CONFECTIONERY.

NOTHING that we could say would so thoroughly convince you of the value of Chamberlain's Tablets as a personal trial. We can tell you of thousands who have been permanently cured of chronic constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver, but this will have little weight with you as compared to a personal trial. That always convinces.

Hallowe'en Party Given By 7th and 8th Grades.

Hallowe'en was a day of mirth and happiness at the Shedd school.

The primary and intermediate grades had a program and party from 3 o'clock to 4:30. This was an able effort on the part of the teachers and pupils. The program was a good one and was greatly added to by costumes, decorations and "eats." Madam Hallowe'en was a striking feature of the program.

The room being darkened the party commenced by nine pumpkin lanterns being lighted, named and introduced by boys. All the boys were then called forward and handed envelopes inside of which was a card with the name of his future wife. The boys at first appeared skeptical, thinking their teacher could not be possessed of so much knowledge. But when Harvey McConnell opened his and read Mrs Harvey McConnell he was convinced as were all the rest.

Then came the peanut hunt which was a lively affair as with some of the peanuts were hidden the magic ring, penny and button.

Then came the bobbing for apples on a string and all ate their apples and counted the mystic seeds. A pan of lighted candles next appeared while all puffed to find how long they were to wait for the fateful wedding day. The Hallowe'en clown now appeared and called upon all to attend the Hallowe'en circus and take in the different side shows.

Victor Weinman had such a wonderful kicking cow behind his curtain that all were afraid to try and view it but he announced it was not a common cow giving common cream but yielding the best cream of tartar.

Kenneth Arnold gave a view of a flying boy scout. Then the clown inquired of Harold Troutman what he would do if a pretty girl should kiss him. Harold answered that he would kiss her back. The clown chuckled and said he would'nt, he would kiss her face.

Last of all everyone was invited to attend the wonderful Hallowe'en circus behind a curtain where Harvey McConnell was in charge. Two girls requested to see a crocodile and were shown a mirror with the instruction those were the Hallowe'en crocodiles.

Then all fished from the enchanted fishing pond each one getting some object as an omen and a fortune attached to it.

The girls names were written on slips of paper and put in a hat the boys drawing out the name of his partner for the eats. When all were seated sandwiches, pumpkin pie, popcorn balls, almonds, cider and punch were served.

All then tried their fortunes with a handkerchief finding out who loved them.

The room was appropriately decorated with lanterns, witches and black cats. Each one blindfolded tried to draw the tail on a large drawing of a cat. When all were through it had even more than the proverbial "cat-o-nine-tails" and the most successful one received a stick of candy.

One always has a good time when Mrs Allen has the program in charge and the program on Hallowe'en was no exception. The costumes, decorations and games were not only entertaining but showed great originality on the part of the one who planned them.—Shedd Bagle
