Last Saturday morning the train carrying the Sunday papers for Brownsville ran over the papers tearing them all to pieces. This has happened several times in the last few months. The S P Company will some time have a wrecked train and possibly several deaths to their account if more care isn't taken in throwing off the heavy bundles, to say nothing of the inconvenience to those who are expecting their papers.

The Red Cross is making preparations to enroll all professional nurses, and the State Federation of Woman's Clubs are preparing to enroll all young women who have either had experience or have natural ability for nursing; the enrollments are to be consolidated and arranged in classes, and the local health officers are to see that they receive instruction in the rudiments of hygienic and sanitary nursing, paying special attention to the peculiar requirements of persons affected with Spanish influenza.

S G Collins Will Case Settled.

Hewitt & Sox received word of the final settlement of the S G Collins' will case, which has been before the courts for some time. The supreme court of Oregon upheld Judge G G Bingham and established the will.

S G Collins was 94 years of age when he died and he left half of his property to his daughter, Mrs Ada Long, and the other half, he divided between his other children with a provision that, should any of them protest the will, their share should go to Mrs Long. There were two families of children, the second family of which quarreled with the old gentleman and had a guardian appointed for him; this angered him and he moved to Bellingham, Wash, and lived with his daughter Mrs Long.

Suit to set aside the will was brought in Judge McKnight's court here by Attorney N M Newport, of Lebanon, acting for children of the second family. Judge McKnight set the will aside, but his decision was over-ruled by Judge Bingham. The property sought is a 200 acre farm not far from Halsey.
