Christian Church Notes

I was glad when they said unto me, "Let us go up to the house of the Lord." So sang the Psalmist so many centuries ago and his sentiments have often been endorsed by Christians, and certainly the cheery greetings and smiling faces of the goodly number of our people that were present last Lord's day would lead us to believe that they too agreed with David in their estimate of the privilege of meeting in the house of worship. We are hoping that the flu is now a thing of the past and that we shall be able to meet regularly.

Next Lord's day the topics for morning and evening are: At 11 a m, "The Christian calling." At 7:30 "The doctrine of substitution."

Sunday school meets at 10 a m, sharp, and it is hoped that the "trip tickets" will be ready for distribution then, the first being the trip to London, England, on the following Sunday. Be opt.

C E topic: Patience and its rewards. 1 Cor 13: 4-7, Luke 21: 19. Leader, Rena Walker.

March 21 is now the date set for the home-coming day. Services will be as usual morning and evening with lunch served at the church at noon followed by reports from all the departments of the work concluding with the every-member canvass. It is hoped that not only all the members will be out, but that many friends will enjoy an hour of fellowship on that day. A call will be made upon any members who are not able to be out. Note the date.

C E contest will be renewed with energy. Come out and take part in this work.

Additional Shedd Items.

Mrs Mary Powers was an Albany visitor last Friday.
Peter Froerksen was an Albany caller last week.

Methodist Church Notes

SUNDAY SCHOOL

John on the Isle of Patmos.

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever. Heb.13.8.

Jesus' power will guide and guard his church.

When Peter was in prison God sent his angel to set his body free; when John was in prison on the rocky isle, Christ himself came to set his spirit free. Each church, each Sunday School class should be a candlestick, holding up Christ "the Light of the world." Every vision of Christ calls us to higher living and more zealous labor.

"Jesus Christ is the illumination and inspiration of existence; without him the world is a puzzle, and death a horror and eternity a blank."

Phillips Brooks.

The work opened up again in an encouraging manner at the services last Sunday morning.

The young people came out, right on time in full force and are setting a pace for the rest of us.

The ladies' missionary society will hold their regular meeting this Friday p m at the home of Mrs Arthur Wesley.

The King's Herald's superintendent announces their meeting next Saturday at 2 p m at the home of Mrs Marcella Kirk. All members are requested to come.

We are very sorry that Marie Sneed is quite sick at her home this week.

Mrs F H Porter has been quite sick from trouble with her teeth. Mr Porter was taken down sick while in Albany last week and is thus far not able to come home.

The subject of the morning sermon next Sunday is "Why I ought to go to church."

Lyman Masters will favor us with a solo at church next Sunday morning.

School Notes

Mrs Minnie Cross returned to her school work Monday after an absence of several weeks. Miss Knips, who took her place while she was away, is teaching in the High School.

Most of the pupils have returned to school after having the flu. The attendance was not very high last week, but it has now got back to normal. We hope there will be no more interference with the school work this year as it means harder work for both teachers and pupils when school begins again.
