There is a scarecrow on duty in our county that is wearing a Blain Clothing Co.'s suit that was bought in 1904.

And the surprising part of it is that, although old enough to vote, the suit still holds its original color. It is as fast today as the crow; it is scaring away.

We had this story brought to our attention by a customer of ours who buys his suits of us right along.

Atty. for Admr. 5-13 to 6-10

Our Sermonette.

Behold to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 1 Sam 15: 22.

Our heavenly Father wishes us to be very attentive to his word, and not to think for a moment that we can improve thereon, or that times and circumstances will alter the propriety of our obedience to him. Let us hearken to the word of the Lord and keep close to it, not fearing the results, but having faith that he who keeps us never slumbers nor sleeps, and is too wise to err, as well as competent to meet every emergency that could possibly come upon us as a result of our obedience.

Shedd Items.

Achievement day will be observed by the Shedd school on June 1. The grades are all preparing their work to be exhibited then to the patrons of the school. Judges will select the best work on each grade which will form the exhibit from this school at the County fair next fall.

June 6 has been selected as the date for the baccalaureate session to the Senior class and Friday, June 11 for the commencement exercises.

Last Friday night an enthusiastic meeting was held at the U. P. Church conducted by the C. E. society. Eight different societies in Linn county were represented. The larger delegations were from Albany, Halsey, Oakville, Brownsville and Lebanon. The chief speaker of the evening was Clarence Hamilton of Mass. a well known C. E. worker and organizer.

Young Lady near Halsey saves Child's Life.

Quick thought and action on the part of Miss Clarissa Walton, who lives three miles northeast of Halsey, probably saved the life of little Ralph Dannen, two year old son of Mr and Mrs Ralph Dannen, one and one-half miles south of Shedd from being killed by a Southern Pacific north bound freight train about ten o'clock last Thursday morning. Miss Walton, who was working at the Dannen home which is right near the railroad track, heard the train coming and not seeing the child in sight soon discovered him standing on the track in front of the fast approaching freight. She quickly ran to the child and pulled him away just in time to save him from being crushed under the powerful engine.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Qualification for leadership. Direct your hearts unto Jehovah, and serve him only. 1 Sam 7: 3.

Samuel, the man of prayer, signed over Israel. The Israelites repenting of their sins at the all of Samuel, were Divinely delivered from the oppressions of the Philistines.

Samuel was not a military leader but a man of ability with a great, deep reverence for God.

Napoleon, Washington and Foch have been great leaders. If we argue that it was their physical strength we do not get far for Napoleon was only 4 ft 10 inches tall. But behold Foch the "gray man of prayer."

We are taught by living examples that the great fundamental is a subtle mixture of mind and soul. To get right with God is the great preparation for success in life. Leadership in any undertaking will count for naught if not with Him.

The picnic committees are holding meetings this week making preparations for a big time.

We are to observe children's day next month in a fitting manner. Committee in charge: Mrs D Taylor, Mrs F S Clemo, and Mona Bond.

The Standard Bearers held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Hazel and Isabel Gulliford. The girls report a very pleasant evening.

Bro Clemo delivered a good Mother's Day sermon last Sunday morning. It showed much thought and careful preparation.

The League gave some extra program at the evening church service and the following officers were installed for the coming year: H D Mitzner, president; Alberta Koontz, first vice president; Theo Mitzner, 2nd vice president; Isabel Gulliford, 3rd vice president; Hazel Gulliford, 4th vice president; Clarice Gourley, secretary; Cleona Smith, treasurer.

"Alias Mike Moran" which will be at the Opera House, Saturday, was adapted from Frederick Bartlett's story, "Open Sesame," so it is a good play. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Every Oregon Boy and Every Oregon Girl

Is a possible College Student

Oregon sends a bigger percentage of its children to college than any other state, without exception.

That is one of the State's proudest records

No state can have too much education. Education is the safeguard of freedom and of right, and higher education is the capstone of the public school system. But higher education in Oregon is in great danger. The State University and the Agricultural College have twice as many students as they have income to train.

Protect these School and their great work by voting on May 21 for the Higher Educational relief measure. Higher Education pays the state in dollars and cents, in improved living, in scientific progress, in farm, orchard, garden, and stock ranch development, and in the better quality of its public and high school teaching.
