

Graduation suits for young Men and Boys who passed by the skin of their teeth.

The writer of this ad never spoke a valedictory.

He knows from experience that a boy can fall down on arithmetic and still cut figures at the graduation exercises. So way last January when we placed our order for graduation suits we planned to look out for the fellow that passed by a neck.

These suits are here today capable enough to make a sinner look like a saint.

Suits for boys priced $12 to $25.

Suits for young men $35 to $60.

Graduation shirts, new hats, neckwear, and everything else a boy needs for standing in the lime-light.
