High School Graduating Exercises at the Methodist Church.

The graduating exercises of the class of 1920 were held on Wednesday evening before a crowded house. The building was very appropriately and tastefully decorated in the class colors. The program included two numbers by the girls' glee club which were much appreciated. Prof. Sykes of O. A. C. delivered the address. It would appear that he was not very well acquainted with the situation for his message on "Living up to our heritage" was not at all in keeping with the occasion. It is unfortunate that the extension dept. of O. A. C. which is responsible for his coming, did not make a better selection. A technical discussion of biological, zoological and sociological principles containing a multitude of references to "germ cells, plasms, etc ad nauseum" may be in order in the class room but lacks in point as an inspirational address before a graduating class of young people.

Mr. Davis presented the diplomas, prefacing his remarks by the usual reference to the high cost of education and the trials of a school board; while very true in themselves it was surely not very cheering to the graduates, and has established an unfortunate precedent. While wishing the class of '20 every success in the future, let us promise the class of '21 a better send off.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Strength and Weakness of Saul's character.

Thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah hath rejected thee. 1 Sam 15: 26.

Wherein did Saul fail as the first king over Israel? What are some of the dangers that attend power and the achievement of success?

Picnic Echoes.

A good crowd, a beautiful day and surroundings in the grove. The children from three to sixty took turns in the swings. The girls gathered wild flowers and the boys raced through the woods. The men pitched horse shoes and the ladies sang some good numbers.

Dinner.

Plenty for all including ice cream. The ball game between the Blues and the Blacks again brought victory for the Blues, score 12 to 11. The climax of the day was reached in the races, in which every one had a chance and a great many ran. Isabelle Gulliford carried away four blue ribbons, the highest number awarded; Holt Grimes was second with two blues and one red.

Mrs. Wesley proved herself a real racer in the ladies' race. In the men's relay race, the fats won from the leans in two straight heats. Winners, Clemo, Gardner, Koontz, and Zimmerman. Teams from neighboring towns, beware. Many thanks are due the Hetzel Bros, and to the many friends who contributed to the success and pleasure of the occasion.

Our delegates to the District League convention at Corvallis, the Misses Amanda Mitzner and Hazel Gulliford report a good convention. Honors were conferred on Halsey chapter and Miss Hazel Gulliford by her election as fourth vice president of the Eugene District.

The W. F. M. S. will hold their annual mite box opening at their meeting at the church next Friday at 2:30. The Standard Bearers, the King's Herald, and Little Light Bearers will have a part in the meeting. Miss Julia Morrow, a returned missionary from India, will be here to address the ladies at this time. Miss Morrow will return again and will deliver an address on missions at the evening service hour on next Sunday at 8 p. m. Our people are advised that Miss Morrow is an excellent speaker and you will do well to hear her.

At the third quarterly conference held here on May 24th, our pastor reported a record of 150 astoral calls during the past six months. This certainly speaks well for his interest in the spiritual welfare of this people.

Christian Church Notes

Children's day is one that should appeal to all. It is the day of the year when the youngsters provide the program in the S. S. in behalf of foreign missions. Last year we had a record attendance and a splendid program. This year we aim to have as good a program and a big crowd. At the conclusion of the program everyone will adjourn and a group picture will be taken and a copy presented to everyone who attends. Come at 10 o'clock sharp and bring the children and a friend. If you have no children, bring your neighbor's, and if you have no friends then get some and come along.

The meetings are progressing very favorably, even better than we could have hoped in view of the many other interesting events in progress. Bro. Stivers has many admirers here already and many good things are said about his sermons. If you have been attending, come every night. If you have not yet done so, we invite you especially to come right away. The services of last Lord's day were most exceptionally well attended. In the morning a very large audience listened to the fine sermon on the "Unfolding of a life."

The union baccalaureate service was even more successful than usual if numbers are any criterion. Despite Bro. Phillips having a bad cold he brought us a message appropriate to the occasion.

We were pleased to have Bro. Hendricks, pastor of the church at Lebanon, visit us and lead in the song service. Bro. Hendricks was pastor here for one

School Notes

Senior day program was held Tuesday afternoon in the High School rooms with the seventh and eighth grades as guests. Gertrude McKern, who acted as president, called on a number of people for impromptu speeches. Miss Graves responded with an appropriate reading, but the rest of us felt as Lawrence Wells expressed himself, "Sentimentally I am inclined to harmony, but organically not in tune." The "Last will and testament" which we suspect was originated by the author of the "Red Devil," was excruciatingly funny.

The student body election of officers was held last Wednesday and Ted Mitzner was elected as its president. Other officers elected were as follows: Amanda Mitzner, vice president; Alberta Koontz, secretary; Bertha Walker, treasurer; Willis Kirk, sergeant at arms; Nora Pehrson, reporter.

The High School is planning on their annual picnic trip for Thursday. It is our desire to go to Coburg if the gasoline shortage is alleviated.

The ice cream social last Thursday night was a success. They made enough money to pay off the P. T. A. debts and had a little left over for the High School fund.

The following program was given at the Methodist church Commencement night; Invocation, Rev. Clemo; Song, Girls' glee club; Salutatorian, Carl Clemo; Song, quartet; address, Prof. Sykes; Presentation of diplomas, Mr. Davis; Valedictorian, Cleona Smith; Benediction, Rev. Clemo.

The senior banquet was given at the city hall on Monday evening. Games were played, after which dairy refreshments were served. The hall and tables were very effectively decorated with red and white crepe paper, red and white being the High School colors.

The baccalaureate services were held Sunday night at the Christian church. The program proper began with the invocation by Elder Phillips; Song, Girls' glee club; solo, Alberta Koontz; song, Girls' glee club; Baccalaureate sermon, "Thinking to success," Elder Phillips; song, congregation; benediction, Elder Stivers.
