"They're Talking About It Everywhere" says the Good Judge

How much more genuine satisfaction you get from a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than you ever got from the old kind.

The good, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long—you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often. That's why it saves you money.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Plainview Items.

Mr and Mrs R B Healey and Mr and Mrs Frank Healey of Co-burg, spent the week end at the home of J W Morgan. Mrs R B Healy is a sister of Mrs Morgan and a former resident of this vicinity.

Mrs E F Morgan, Mrs Bryant, Mrs Jennings, Mrs J W Morgan and Naomi Pate were Albany callers Saturday.

Mrs Chas Jenks, who has been on the sick list is much improved.

Mr and Mrs Scott Churchill and family motored to Albany Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Ray Brewster attended the exercises at O A C Saturday and report a good time.

A very interesting as well as instructive institute was held at Brownsville May 24, under the auspices of the W C T U, beginning at 10 a m, and continuing until 4 p m, with an intermission at noon, during which time the Brownsville ladies served one of their delicious dinners to the visiting unions. Among those attending from the Plainview union were Mesdames Whealdon, Bonar, Anderson, Cleek, Brewster, Olsen, Nichols, E F and J W Morgan, and Tibbits.

The closing of the Morgan school was the occasion of a very pleasant social evening. The children gave a school program, after which ice cream and cake were served. The proceeds are for the benefit of the school library.

R C Farwell has just received the sad news of the death of the infant son of his daughter, Mrs Rex Grove of Chilco, Idaho.

Clifford Cornett had the misfortune to break his arm while operating the spraying machine last week.

Mrs W F Wiles of Eugene, spent the week end at the home of her sister, Mrs E F Morgan.

Dr Marks was called to the bedside of Mrs Shoemate Friday evening; she is much better now.

Mrs John Kors is visiting at the home of her parents near Waterloo.
