"Bear this in Mind"

says the Good Judge

You not only get complete tobacco satisfaction from a little of the Real Tobacco Chew—But it costs you less. The rich tobacco taste lasts so much longer than the old kind—you don't have to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Christian Church Notes

The much welcomed rain that came last Sunday morning interfered with the success of our children's day program as far as the attendance was concerned. About sixty were present and we sure thoroughly enjoyed the items provided by members of the various classes. The patient presenting the claims of the foreign field was splendid and most appropriate.

Splendid audiences attended both of the services of the church and were well repaid by the two sermons Brother Stivers brought us. The meetings are growing in interest and definite results are being seen in the confessions and other additions to the membership of the church.

Do not miss any of the remaining services for they will do much to help you in your every day life. Brother Stivers speaks straight from the Bible, of which he is a splendid student, and has no desire other than to exalt Christ and the truth as it is in him that men and women may do what is well pleasing to Him.

Whatever we may think regarding the religion of Christ, there is one thing certain, we shall be judged according to our obedience to His revealed word or disobedience as the case may be; it therefore behooves us not to miss an opportunity of hearing what He has to say. Come every night.

The Bible school is about to face the dreaded monster "summerslump" and only preparation now will fit us to meet and conquer him as we did last year.

Your pastor and superintendent ask that all the members will realize that their faithfulness will be put to the test during the coming months and they are counting upon your continued co-operation and as good a showing as last year.

Remember the services next Lord's day. Start right with the Bible school at ten and attend everyone during the day; you will be well repaid, the church strengthened and encouraged by your presence, and the cause of Christ exalted by your faithful observance of His day.

C E topic, Common mistakes in daily living. Prov 24: 27-34.

On Sunday next, following the morning service the ordinance of Christian baptism will be observed. And at 2:30 at the river at Brownsville a special baptismal service will be held when several will be baptized. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Methodist Church Notes SUNDAY SCHOOL

A shepherd boy chosen king.

The spirit of Jehovah came mightily upon David from that day forward. 1 Sam 16: 13.

David is here announced as the God-anointed, future king of Israel.

"The successful Christian life is growing in its contentment with God, and life; growing patient, loving, unselfish, humble, efficient, self-controlled."

The missionary society had an interesting meeting at the church last Friday at which Miss Morrow, the returned missionary from India, gave a very interesting address which was directed more especially to the Standard Bearers and the younger societies. The mite box opening at this time amounted to $17.00.

The public address by Miss Morrow Sunday evening on the great needs and importance of the work on the foreign field was a splendid appeal from a trained mind and a devoted worker for the cause of Christ. The address was delivered in a quiet winning way that is bound to wield for good in the lives of all who hear her. The offering for the work was $24.06.

Next Sunday will be observed as Children's Day. In the morning there will be a special sermon on this theme. In the evening at 8 o'clock the children will render their program.

The committee in charge are using their time and labor to make this a success. Come out and encourage the children in the cause they are putting forward.

As Others See Us.

(By Martin G. Christensen.)

The poet Burns expressed the wish that we

Could see ourselves as others see us

But that wish has no advocate in me—

The fates from that forever free us!

For then a thousand views

Would you and me confuse,

And not a single one would be us.

I have in mind a better view,

More benefit to you and me,

Than seeing ourselves as others see us;

If I saw me, and you saw you,

The way we are, just thru and thru—

A view that might from blunders free us.

The time is coming with a mighty stride,

when we shall see each other as we are,

when e'en our thoughts no longer we can hide.

Be they as white as snow or black as tar;

when shall we thus each other, see?

The Bible tells us it shall be when Christ sets up his righteous government.

But for this time to ready be,

What can be done by you and me?

I think that we should start a movement.

Let each appoint a committee—

Say, you choose you, and I choose me.

For true and earnest self improvement.
