Obituary

Isabelle Caroline Pearl was born in Ohio Jan 9, 1920. When a small child her parents moved to Missouri and in 1855 crossed the plains to Oregon. She was married to Henry H Kirk Dec 28, 1854. They settled on a farm a few miles southwest of Brownsville, afterward moving to the old home place where they lived until in 1903 they moved to Halsey where Mr Kirk died July 13, 1910.

To this union were born twelve children, eight of whom are now living, viz: Mrs J P Wilbur, Portland, Mrs C H Bone, Winona, Wash, Frank, Halsey, Joe, Eugene, William, Halsey, Chas, Athena, Mrs Eljje Gulliford and Mrs Nellie Frum of Halsey.

There are fifteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

She was converted and joined the M E church when quite small and has lived a Christian life ever since.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev F S Clemo.

The pall bearers were John Rebbam from Brownsville, Geo Laubner, E B Penland, W F White, D H Sturtevant and M E Gardner.

The flower ladies were Mesdames Sneed, Brandon, D Taylor, Laubner, Frum and Gormley.

A large concourse of people followed the remains to the Brownsville cemetery where they were laid to rest.

Brownsville and Drifted Snow flour at D H Sturtevant's.

C H Koontz' family left Tuesday for Newport for a month or two.

Glenn Chance, John Greenley and Clayton Gaub went to Corvallis Saturday.

There will be a dance at the opera house Friday night, July 16th. Everybody come.

Mr Mayberry of Portland, came up last week and has been buying stock wherever he could find it.

F H Porter attended the meeting of the Linn County Fair Board in Albany last Saturday.

Robt Andrews and wife from Portland, former residents in this vicinity, attended the funeral of Mrs Kirk.

A letter to Jas Drinkard from his brother stated that his father, W J Drinkard of Klondike, Oregon, had had a stroke of paralysis and is lying in a critical condition.

W H Seefeld, who lives in New Mexico, says that the oil fields are being developed in his section of the country. Two derricks have been installed in one place and others near there and the prospects for oil are supposed to be very good.

Daniel Wesley had the misfortune to break one of the bones of his left wrist last Sunday. He was climbing onto some boxes and fell with the above result.

Mrs G Mitzner and her daughters Ida and Amanda left Tuesday for Newport where they will spend several weeks.

B M Bond and wife and Mrs M C Bond and her daughter Mona went to Cascadia Sunday. They put in a whole day of it for they left here at 4 a m and returned at 8 p m.

Mrs Marsters fell Tuesday of last week and fractured the bones of her right shoulder. It was caused by her tripping over some baling wire that was entangled in the grass. She is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Henry Seefeld and his daughter and his brother, W H Seefeld from Causey, New Mexico, drove over to Corvallis Saturday. W H Seefeld tells us he hadn't seen his brother for 26 years. He arrived here a couple of weeks ago. He left the fore part of the week for a week or ten days in Portland and Seattle, and then he will stop a few days on his return.
