"Are You Getting Real Tobacco"
says the Good Judge

There's more good, lasting taste in a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than you get out of the ordinary kind.

You don't need a fresh chew nearly so often—
that's why it costs you less to chew this class of tobacco.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Christian Church Notes

Bible school at 10 a m sharp. Let us make a point of rallying at this hour. The lesson is a treatment on David's treatment of Saul, who was seeking his life. We have in the lesson an exemplification of the possibility of "Loving one's enemies and doing good to them that hate us."

Brother Phillips will conduct the morning service at 11, bringing a message entitled "The people of God." A special invitation to "all who love his appearing" to be with us at this service.

The Endeavor topic is; Why people are unhappy; the cure. Ps 32: 10, 11, John 15: 9-14. Leader, W F White. Join the young people at 7 for the Endeavor service and stay for the union service at 8.

The union service will be under the charge of Brother Sneed and will be held at the Christian church.

The service held in the Methodist church last Sunday evening was very successful as far as attendance is concerned. A large audience listened attentively to our pastor's sermon based on Jesus' parable of the rich fool. It is hoped that during the next few weeks of summer weather these union meetings will grow in popularity and that much good for the common cause of our Lord will result in our gathering together to learn more of his will.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

David spares Saul's life.

Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you. Luke 6: 27.

Six chapters of Bible history intervene between this and last Sunday's lessons, in which David flees from the wrath of the jealous Saul; by hiding in caves and desolate places, also by trusting his life in hostile cities. In one instance while David with a company of men were fighting back the enemies of Israel and seeking to protect the borders of his native land, Israel's king was pursuing him with an army, trying to crush him. David could not be forced into enmity against his country or his king. There came a night when Saul's spear was in David's hand and Saul lay close by asleep and helpless. Right here David was compelled to fight one of the greatest battles of his life, the battle against revengful feelings. We can act like Saul, and hate and harm our enemies or we can act like David and forgive our enemies.

The funeral services of Grandma Kirk on Sunday afternoon were very impressive. The central thought in her pastor's discourse, "She hath done what she could," was brought to our minds by her large circle of friends present. They came to honor one who had lived a useful, Christian life in the community.

Bro Sneed will have charge of the service next Sunday morning and will also deliver the sermon at the Christian church in the evening at the union service.

Shedd

The Endeavorers from Halsey met at the home of Mrs George Danner last Friday night and held their business meeting.

The little son of C W Miller, who lives near Fayetteville, had the misfortune to fall off the porch last Saturday and broke both bones of his right arm.

Elijah F Willsie is the proud possessor of a brand new daughter who came to make her home with him on Sunday, June 11. The mother and child are both doing well.

B Crawford is reported on the sick list.

J B Cornett attended the meeting of the Linn County Fair Association in Albany last Saturday. Everything points to the holding of a successful fair this fall.

D S McWilliams and family attended church at the United Presbyterian church here last Sunday evening.

C J Lawson attended the G A R meeting in Albany last Saturday.

County agent S V Smith attended the meeting of the committee that has been delegated to apportion prizes for distribution among the members of the boys' and girls' industrial club at this place. Mr Smith says he will try to persuade the Shedd people to hold their industrial club fair previous to the Linn county fair, and thus facilitate the showing of their children's work at the Albany show.
