Mrs Kirk's Will Filed.

The last will and testament of Mrs Isabelle C Kirk was admitted to probate in the county court by Judge W R Bilyeu last Thursday morning.

The will distributes her estate, which is estimated at the value of $8000, as follows:

To Laura Davidson, only surviving child of deceased's deceased daughter, Mrs Mary J Wilson, $200.

To Lillian M Kirk, widow of the deceased's son, $200.

To her children, Emma Wilbur, Elizabeth Bone, Frank Kirk, Joseph Kirk, W R Kirk, Charles Kirk, Effie B Gulliford, and Nellie Frum, all the remainder of the estate in equal portions.

The document nominates Frank Kirk and W R Kirk as executors of the estate.

Accident at Alford Station.

Tuesday morning when the north bound train that is due here at 11:55 was at Alford station, an automobile containing a man, two women and a child attempted to cross the track just ahead of the train, but the train struck them. One woman was killed outright, the man died before the train reached Halsey; the other woman was badly wounded on the head and probably internally and was not expected to live, and the child was badly injured, having at least a broken leg. Dr Garnjobst and Mrs John Bramwell got on the train and accompanied the woman to Albany where she and the child were placed in the hospital.

The name on the man's accident insurance card was Joseph P Schrimsher, 1017 Ellis St, San Francisco. It is supposed that they were a man and his wife and child and mother of either the man or the woman.

The elderly lady was the one that was killed outright. Her body was left with an attendant where the accident occurred, to await the coroner's coming.

Later information. The woman died near Shedd, and the bodies of the man and woman were taken to the undertaking parlors of Coroner C E Fisher. The little boy was taken to the hospital but died a short time afterwards.

Tuesday morning, July 13th, 1920, a 9 pound boy was born to Mr and Mrs Chas Mishler of this place. Mother and child are doing well, and Charloy wore off some of his excess exuberance by thoroughly oiling the running gears of his wagon. The influence of the smile upon his face reaches from here to yonder and makes us all rejoice with him. And we don't blame him for smiling. It is his first born, and you fathers who have passed through a similar experience know just how to appreciate his feelings. The poor editor has to get his knowledge of such things second handed, but we extend our congratulations just the same.

A social gathering was held at the home of Mr and Mrs R K Stewart in which ice cream and cake were served which was very much enjoyed by all present. Those in attendance were Mr and Mrs Sylvester and daughter Eunice, Mr and Mrs E E Bass and little son Clifford E, Mr and Mrs E Hover and son Robert, Peter Settle, the Misses Agnes Chandler, Pearl and Grace Pehrsson, Mr and Mrs Crider and son and Mrs Elliot of Harrisburg, and Mr and Mrs Pehrson and their friend Mrs Fuglebak of Oakland, California.
