The kick of a camel is soft but stunning. This ad is for the man who believes down in his heart that $35.00 is enough to spend for a suit of clothes.

IT ISN'T—and in telling you that it isn't—we deserve your respect and not your rebuke.

At $15 any good store can sell you good clothes. At any price less, they CAN'T but you CAN experience how it feels to be sandbagged if you fall into the wiles of a "soft at first" saving.

You want clothes that will stand up and we want you to have them.

This store is honest in its merchandise and with the men it serves and we are pleading with you to be honest with yourself

Lee Miller, a stock buyer from Albany, was a business caller in Halsey Monday.

Geo Laubner and wife, and C E Gulliford and wife were Marcola visitors last Sunday.

Mrs J A McCullough of Albany, formerly of Halsey, fell last Friday morning and severely injured one hip.

Lee Hayes, Mrs Stewart, and Mrs E Schultz from Portland, who spent a week here, returned Friday.

J E Marks and wife from Canyon City, arrived here Monday for a visit with his brother, Dr T I Marks and family.

Tuesday morning the work train set fire to a wheat field at Alford station, but after a long fight the fire was gotten under control.

Mrs Nellie Knott, who had been visiting for two weeks with her daughter, Mrs John Bramwell, left Tuesday morning for her home in Salem.

Dr and Mrs T I Marks and Mrs M E Bassett returned Sunday after a few days' visit at the Fred Applegate home in Yorcalla.

On Friday, July 16th, at Peoria, was born to Mr and Mrs Clarence E Lasley, a five and a half pound boy. Mother and child are doing well.

Miss Lillian Sneed returned last Friday evening from Portland to spend her vacation. She was accompanied by Mrs Erskine who has been visiting this week with Halsey friends.

W A Allen returned last Thursday from McCredie Springs. He says the Springs are doing him good and he expects to put in considerable time there this year.

We notice the name of J A Dougherty as one of the eleven of Linn county men who bought Jersey stock at the recent sale of registered stock held at Monmouth by G G Hewett.

The Albany Chamber of Commerce has bought the building formerly used by the Y M C A and has remodeled and re-finished it. County Farm Agent S V Smith has his office there now instead of at the St Francis hotel.

It is called the Community House and is located at 314 Broadalbin Street.

Jas McWilliams, Linn Norton, Roy Templeton, Chas Mornhinweg, and Eldon Cross left here Saturday night for the Lower Lake Creek country to try their luck at fishing. They report that fishing is just fair. They returned Sunday evening.

Jas Willoughby of Harrisburg on July 16th was appointed administrator of the estate of his father, who died last April near Harrisburg, leaving property valued at approximately $6700. The heirs are Mary France Long of Camp Creek, Lane county, James R Willoughby of Harrisburg, J E Willoughby of Shedd, Anna McCulloch of Harrisburg, J O Willoughby of Harrisburg, all sons and daughters, and J D Willoughby of Halsey, a grandson.

Dr T I Marks and his brothe. went to Portland Wednesday.

For Sale—A Jersey male calf seven months old, subject to register. D H Sturtevant.

Born on July 18, to Mr and Mrs D L Smith of Grants Pass, Oregon, a son. The parents are well known here.

About ten cars of Halsey people went to Brownsville Wednesday night to attend the moving picture show, "The Copperhead." They report a fine show.

Found among the stock of Jas McMahan a six weeks old calf. Owner may have same by proving claim and paying for the care. J W Moore, Halsey, 72229

Mr and Mrs F H Porter and three visitors, Mr and Mrs Kimbrell and little son, Mr and Mrs B M Miller, Mrs Helen Young, Mrs L E Erskine, Mr and Mrs Frank Hadley, D H Sturtevant, Lyman Marsters and Earl Clemon went to Albany Sunday to hear Billy Sunday.

W H Bilyeu, aged 84, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs Ava Coffey, at Kalama, Wash, Tuesday morning. He had been a resident of Linn county for 57 years. Mrs C C Jackson and Mrs Rebecca Nancy Nemchick of Halsey are his sisters, and R L Bilyeu of Halsey is his brother. Judge Bilyeu of Albany, is his second cousin.

A Surprise Party.

Last Friday night was the steenth anniversary (and then some) of W F White's birthday, and to surprise him the following neighbors assembled at his house:

D H Sturtevant and family, M E Gardner and wife, Pearl True and wife, A Wesley and family, and J A Stevenson and wife.

Now Mr White is not a man to be outdone by a surprise party so he invited some others, and when the surprises got there they, to their surprise, found G R Walker and family, Mrs Nancy Palmer and Mrs Belvury Logan there waiting to help eat the ice cream and cake.

We want to give out the information for the benefit of any one who may want to treat Mr White to ice cream, that he prefers it salted. It gives it a decidedly different flavor.

A very pleasant time is reported and the surprised surprisers departed to their homes at a late hour wishing Mr White the honor of living twenty years or more longer so that he would be classed with the centenarians.

Additional Facts Concerning the Accident at Alford Station.

Since printing the front page of this paper we have learned more about the horrible accident at Alford station.

The driver of the car was Joseph Paul Schrimsher and the woman who was killed outright was his wife and the mother of the other woman. They had only been married since the second of June. They were on their way to San Francisco where they intended to make their home. His mother and brother live in Portland, and the brother, E E Schrimsher, came to Albany and took the bodies of the dead man and wife to Portland.

The other woman was Mrs R V Joste of Oakland, California, and the child, William Joste, belonged to her. Her husband came from Oakland and took the bodies of his wife and son to Oakland for interment.

Brandon Center

Hay is going up in this quarter. However, the barns will about all be filled before the week is out. Baling and binding will be in full swing next week.

Arthur Waggener killed a rattlesnake nearly three feet long Sunday on the hill ranch of A G Waggener. He heard it rattle and jumped from the sound. The reptile jumped too and landed between his feet.

Chancy Sickels and family drove to Alford Tuesday to see the wreck that occurred there.

A number of old binders are trying the patience of their owners who should have had new ones this year but for the extremely high price.

We understand that Mrs Mary Miller will teach the Roland school and Mrs Ed Kizer, who has taught there for a number of years, will teach at Center.

Brandon has not hired a teacher yet.

John Quinby tried handling the derrick team one day and they backed the cart against a post, bruising his knee and the upper bone of his leg rather painfully.

Cecil Quinby celebrated his twenty-first birthday Sunday, July 18.

Oakville Items

A large number of Oakville people heard Billy Sunday at Albany on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Arthur Campbell were down from Portland last week visiting her mother and father—Mr and Mrs E E Caldwell and other relatives. With them was Miss Ethel Durnor.

Mrs Milhollen of Albany, and Mrs Harder of Portland, were also one day guests at the Caldwell home.

Mr and Mrs Stocum and family are staying with their son Harry on the Tennent place for the summer.

Lawrence Huff of Snohomish, Wash, is spending a few weeks with his aunt Mrs Oscar Spalinger and helping with their haying. An extra hand is very welcome just now for much hay is still cut and help scarce.

Frances Storer of Corvallis, is spending part of her summer vacation with her grandmother, Mrs A Storer.

Bob Baslee went to Portland Saturday from whence he expects to motor to Eastern Oregon.

Herbert Davis is at home again after spending 4 or 5 weeks in Portland.

A new and attractive feature at the Oakville Sunday school is an orchestra played by George Adams, William Williamson and William Brown.

A good time was had at the church Friday evening when the losing side in a completed contest entertained the winners. Over one hundred people were present in spite of the busy season.

We would like our correspondents to get their items in as early as possible.
