Christian Church Notes

Last Sunday was a most beautiful day in many respects. A fine attendance at the Bible school hour added to the joy of everyone concerned, but the attendance was even bettered at the service following when Bro Phillips brought us a message extolling the high calling of the Christian.

At the evening service Bro Sneed preached to a good audience on the subject of love, an inexhaustible theme and one that is ever welcome in this age.

Next Lord's day the services will be as usual, beginning with the Sunday school at 10 a. m. Shall we try and better the attendance of last week?

Communion at 11 and C E at 7. The Endeavor topic is "Every Christian a missionary." Acts 1: 1-9. (Missionary meeting.) John Pitman, leader.

Union services at the Methodist church at 8. Bro Phillips announces as his topic for that service "The Immutable Christ." Those who were present at the past two union services will be there of course, and those who have not yet attended will do well to be with us next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. You will feel more fitted for the work of the coming week for the hour spent in listening to the things of God.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The secret of David's success. Trust in Jehovah with all thy heart, and lean not upon thine own understanding. Prov 3: 5.

1. David sought to please the people, not to tyrannize over them.

2. In accepting the kingship he made a covenant with the people, a definite recognition of their rights and a limitation of his own.

3. He would not rise at the cost of another's downfall.

4. He waited until he was sure it was God's will.

What was Jesus' standard of success? "whosoever will be great among you shall be your minister. And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be the servant of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

He who trusts his own understanding, leans upon a feeble reed; but he who relies upon the wisdom of the omniscient has a staff that will keep him firm whether he walks in the depths or on the heights. Jesus is our brother, our friend, our deliverer.

A number of our people attended the Billy Sunday meeting at the Albany Chautauqua last Sunday p. m.

The official board will meet next Monday evening, July 26th. A full attendance is desired.

Bro Clemo will fill his regular appointment next Sunday morning.

In the evening the union service will be held in the Methodist church and the sermon will be delivered by Bro Phillips.

Construction of Halsey and Tangent Roadwork now at a Standstill.

Because funds are not available, no work will be done by the state highway commission this year upon the section of the Pacific highway between Halsey and Tangent, according to County Judge Bilyeu, who is in receipt of information to that effect from the Commission at Salem.

MR. FARMER:

If you have a piece in Wheat, Oats, Barley, Rye or in fact any grain, and think it will make fancy seed, phone us or drop us a card before you cut it. We will pay a substantial premium over the market price for good seed but we want to see the grain before it is cut.

This means that no surfacing will be placed on that part of the road, which is ten miles long, until next year at the earliest.

What the county will do in the meantime remains yet to be determined, altho it is possible that the grading will be completed this summer. After the road is graded it must be allowed to settle before paving can be applied.

The inability of the state highway commission to secure funds is due to the fact that highway bonds cannot be sold excepting at a discount, Judge Bilyeu says.

Linn County Fair to Feature Good Entertainment

Linn county fair officials, in addition to carrying on a campaign for funds, taking part in the construction of buildings, and inspiring the dear public to prepare exhibits of various kinds, are also doing research work in securing some of the best of talent to entertain and educate those who attend the county fair. They have recently secured the services of a carnival company of a high order which no doubt will add much to the pleasure of those attending the fair. In commenting on the quality of the carnival secured, the La Grande Observer in a recent issue comments as follows:

"The Greater Alamo shows is the biggest and best organization of its kind that ever visited La Grande. There is no comparison between the offerings, the general betterment and attractiveness of this year's attractions and those of a few years ago.

To write of each of the score of attractions is impossible. Not an objectionable show is on the ground. The thriller is the automobile where Mille Lorraine and her quartette of reckless riders, including Forrest Roberts, make the hair stand up as they race in automobile and motorcycle around the enclosure.

"And then there are twenty or more interesting shows, and the ever popular riding devices, among which the merry-go-round seems to be quite capable of holding its own, with its popular music of the day as an accompanist.

Shedd

A very enjoyable family reunion in honor of Mr and Mrs Homer B Taylor and daughter Bettie of Seattle, was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Bert Sachwell last Sunday (July 11.)
