Christian Church Notes

Some one was absent from S S last week. Was that some one you? Did you ever stop to think that the success of an organization depends upon co-operation? Is it just the right thing to "let George do it" while you go off to a picnic or some other event not nearly so important as the work of the church? Mr Absent Member this means you. But there, we'll forget it when we see you in your place next Lord's day at 10 sharp to help us study the lesson found in 2 Samuel 6. A study in the centralizing of religion.

Following the Bible school hour our pastor will preach, his subject being "The source of our strength." This will be a message of encouragement to all who have the interest of the church at heart. Make next Sunday truly "the Lord's day" by giving him your time at the services of the church.

The C E will meet at the usual hour preceding the union service to be held in the Christian church building, conducted by Brother Clemo at 8 o'clock.

The Endeavor topic is "Self Improvement," Ps 25: 1-12. Leader, Edith Robnett.

All who have attended the union services thus far will agree that they are proving very beneficial. The attendance last Sunday evening was all that one could desire for a hot evening, and the attention of everyone to the sermon was most gratifying to those responsible for the success of these services.

Members, we count upon you to make our work a success and look for you to prove faithful during the coming few weeks that remain of the summer. Friends, we appreciate your co-operation expressed by your attendance and we cordially invite you to continue helping in the work, extending to you an invitation to all of the services.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

David brings the ark to Jerusalem.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his court with praise. Ps 100: 4.

The position which a ruler takes with relation to morals and religion is of great importance to those over whom he has authority. To a large extent, as the ruler, so the people. During much of Saul's reign religion had received little attention. This lesson shows how King David re-established the worship of Jehovah, making Jerusalem the great religious center. David had won great victories, he had built up a strong kingdom and capital city. But he knew the most important object in the nation was absent from his capital. It was the Ark, and the Ark stood for worship. The glory of the Lord was said to dwell between the wings of the cherubim above the golden mercy seat upon the Ark. All Israel was glad with a full measure of joy when the Ark was brought to their beloved city, Jerusalem. The greatest day of one's life comes when he welcomes Jesus to his heart.

Miss Erma Green of Creswell, formerly of Halsey, was a welcome guest at the Sunday services. She is visiting Amy Porter.

We had a good morning sermon by the pastor and in the absence of services at the Christian church, we enjoyed the presence of a goodly number from that church. In the evening the spirit of fellowship at the union service was manifest and we enjoyed a strong sermon by Bro Phillips.

At the official Board meeting last Monday night, it was decided to complete the canvass for repairing the church and parsonage at once and send in the application for a like amount to the Centenary Board. Word has come that this work must be done at once or the funds will not be available this year.
