PEACE KEYNOTE OF COX SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Democratic Candidate Would Enter League, Immediately Ratify Treaty and State Interpretation of Covenant.

SAYS "BACK TO THE NORMAL" MEANS REACTION

Failure to Enforce Prohibition is Worse Than Law's Violation—Declares Present Congress Has Not Passed a Single Constructive Law, but Has Spent Time and Millions in Seeking to Make America's Military Triumph an Odious Chapter in History—Favors Repeal of War Taxes, Criminal Prosecution of Profiteers, More Adequate Supervision of Railroads, a National Budget System, and Woman Suffrage.

Here is a summary of the speech of Governor James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for president, at the notification ceremonies at Dayton:

League of Nations.—Would enter the league, immediately ratify the treaty and state our interpretation of the covenant in reservations as a matter of good faith and as a matter of precaution against any misunderstanding in the future.
The interpretation to clearly show that the league is not an alliance and that its basic purpose is peace and not controversy.

Domestic Problems.—Would repeal war taxes; reduce federal taxation; suggest, in place of excess profits tax, substitution of volume of business tax.

Profiteering.—Promises penalization under the criminal law.

Labor.—Stimulate Americanization. Writ of injunction should not be abused. No necessity now for the drastic laws of war days; guarantee of free speech; recognition of the rights of the principle of collective bargaining. Child life of the nation should be conserved.

Agriculture.—Federal government should sponsor agriculture and food production. Farmer should be amply compensated for his work.
Favors municipal markets. Regulation of cold storage. Would increase area of tillable land.

National Prosperity.—Objective should be decreased tenantry and stimulation of home ownership.

Food Supply.—More adequate supervision of railroads; utilization of waterways.

Financial and Commercial.—Extols federal reserve act and merchant marine. Would extend facilities for exchange and credit and stimulate foreign trade.

National Budget.—Favors a national budget system. Would reduce armament expenditures on entering league of nations.

Republican Ungenerosity.—Republicans failed to recognize that America had saved the world or to appreciate the struggles and sacrifices of those who, in arms or industry, helped win the war.
Present Congress has not passed a single constructive law, but spent time and millions in seeking to make military triumph an odious chapter in history.

Mexican Situation.—We have neither lust for their domain nor disposition to disturb their rights.

Disabled Soldiers.—Pledges immediate efforts to provide vocational training and favors employment of disabled soldiers of World War by Federal Board to supervise the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers.

Prohibition.—"Any candidate for the presidency who says he does not intend to enforce the law is more unworthy than the law violator."

Woman Suffrage.—Strongly favored.

Official Responsibility.—Opposed to "government by party;" pledges service to the people as a whole.

Education.—Federal government should not encroach on local control, but rather should create an enlarged public interest.

Campaign Contributions.—No narrow dividing line between the legitimate and the illegitimate, underlying purpose only determining.

Industrial Peace.—We want a change from the world of yesterday, from the old industrial world.
We are at the "forks of the road."
So-called "return to the normal" means "reactionism."

Dayton, O., Aug. 7.—In his speech of acceptance today Governor James M.

COX, EXPRESSING A GREAT DEGREE OF PART:

"We are in a time which calls for straight thinking, straight talking and straight acting. This is no time for wobbling. Never in all our history has more been done for government. Never was sacrifice more sublime. The most precious things of heart and home were given up in a spirit which guarantees the perpetuity of our institutions—if the faith is kept with those who served and suffered.

"The country received with interest, to say the least, the announcement from Chicago, where the Republican national convention was assembled, that a platform plank, dealing with the subject of world peace, had been drawn, leaving out the Lodge reservations, and yet remaining agreeable to all interests, meaning thereby the Lodge reservationists, the mild reservationists and the group of Republicans who openly opposed the League of Nations in any form.

"As the platform made no definite commitment of policy and was, in fact, so artfully phrased as to make almost any deduction possible, it passed through the convention with practical unanimity. Senator Johnson, however, whose position has been consistent and whose opposition to the league in any shape is well known, withheld his support of the convention's choice until the candidate had stated the meaning of the platform, and announced definitely the policy that would be his, if elected.

"Senator Harding makes this new pledge of policy in behalf of his party.

"I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign."

"This means but one thing—a separate peace with Germany!"

"No less an authority than Senator Lodge said, before the heat of recent controversy, that to make peace except in company with the Allies would brand us everlastingly with dishonor and bring ruin to us."

"And then after peace is made with Germany, Senator Harding would, he says, 'hopefully approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new relationship.'" "In short, America, refusing to enter the League of Nations (now ahead,

JAMES M. COX

established by twenty-nine nations) and bearing and deserving the contempt of the world, would submit an entirely new project. This act would either be regarded as arrant madness or attempted international bossism.

"These are fateful times. Organized government has a definite duty all over the world. The house of civilization is to be put in order. The supreme issue of the century is before us and the nation that halts and delays is playing with fire. The finest impulses of humanity, rising above national lines merely seek to make another horriblwar impossible. Under the old order of international anarchy war came overnight, and the world was on fire before we knew it. It sickens our senses to think of another.

Ratification First Duty.

"The first duty of the new adminstration clearly will be the ratification of the treaty. The matter should be approached without thought of the bitterness of the past. The public verdict will have been rendered, and I am confident that the friends of world peace as it will be promoted by the league will have in numbers the constitutional requisite to favorable senatorial action. The captious may say that our platform reference to reservations is vague and indefinite. Its meaning, in brief, is that we shall state our interpretation of the covenant as a matter of good faith to our associates and as a precaution against any misunderstanding in the future.
The point is that after the people shall have spoken the league will be in the hands of its friends in the senate, and
