Ellensburg Produce Co Non Est

The Ellensburg Produce Co closed their doors here last Thursday. They commenced business here a little over a year ago. In fact we noticed their ad in the paper just one or two issues prior to the present editor's taking charge of the Enterprise.

Mrs McPherson was appointed as local manager here shortly after we arrived and she held it until just a few days before her marriage to Mr Hover. Her son, Leo Jenney, has had charge of it ever since.

It came as quite a surprise to us when we heard that they had closed their doors. We thought they were a permanent institution in Halsey, but it seems that they were not. It seems that here was not enough business here to justify the running of two cream stations, and the Ellensburg Produce Co was the one to vacate the field.

SINCE the first use of binder twine in this country forty years ago, Plymouth Twine has always proved itself to be the twine that binds and satisfies. It has been found the most economical in all grain-growing localities and will save you time, money and worry during the coming harvest.

Plymouth Twine

is always uniform in quality—smooth-spun, even and strong. No thin places to strip and break while the binder is in operation.

Inspect a bale of this dependable twine at our store the next time in town and let us have your memorandum order early to insure delivery.
