F H Porter transacted business in Albany Monday. While there he attended to business connected with the county fair, of which he is a director. He found time to visit the fair grounds and inspect the buildings now under construction.

Last Saturday while cranking his auto W J Ribelin got a kick on his right arm and shoulder that almost stunned him. That is a trick those automobiles have, they will make a mule ashamed of itself, and every once in a while we hear of some one getting a jolt from them that leaves them with a fractured skull or a broken arm or something serious. Mr Ribelin wasn't any good for a half an hour after getting his kick.
