Christian Church Notes

Owing to the funeral services for Clyde Carter being held in the forenoon last Sunday there were no usual services of the church.

Last Lord's day evening brought to a close the union services when Bro Clemo preached in the church. These services have been well attended and from the many favorable comments many have been greatly benefitted by them. At least they have done much to keep the work of both churches alive during the "dog days."

Next Lord's day brother Phillips will preach in the evening and it is hoped there will be a large gathering to commence the regular Fall work of the church.

The Bible school will meet as usual in the morning at 10 followed by the communion service.

Much credit is due those who by their faithfulness have kept the S S attendance at par during the past weeks, and the many of the young people are away, we are confident the attendance will increase with the coming weeks. There is a class for all and every one may be benefitted by the lessons studied.

The C E society is still very much alive and will be glad to welcome as many of the young people as desire an opportunity to increase in knowledge and to acquire the ability to present their thoughts in public. Come on at 7 p m. Topic, "What Christ does for the Christian." John 15: 1-8, 14-16. Consecration meeting. Leader Lawrence Wells.

Methodist Church Notes

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Building of the Temple. My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people. Psa 56: 7.

Why spend money to keep up the church? Why spend the money to employ a preacher? And why go to church at all? These are questions which will naturally come up with next Sunday's lesson. Come out and enter into the class discussions. It will do you good and will help us. The lesson tells about a building of gold, marble, cedar wood costly and beautiful, finished and dedicated to the worship of God. Think as you go about your work this week, what this town would become if both of the church buildings were closed and turned over for some other use and the money spent for other things.

We are requesting that every one come to Sunday school next Sunday. We are learning some new songs and we want you to help us.

Some of our members were laid up with colds last Sunday. Sister Clemo and children were among them.

Mrs S A Frisbee was a visitor of the ladies' Bible class last Sunday. She is Mrs B M Bond's grandmother.

The W F M S meets with Mrs Geo Laubner Friday afternoon at 2:30. The annual election of officers will occur. A full attendance is desired.

Next Sunday the regular morning and evening services will be held. Those having no church home are cordially invited to worship with us.
