THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

—Is maintained by the state in order that the young people of Oregon may receive, without cost, the benefits of a liberal education.

The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the Graduate School, the School of Physical Education, and the professional Schools of Law, Medicine (at Portland), Architecture, Commerce, Journalism, Education and Music.

High standards of scholarship are made possible by an able faculty, well equipped laboratories and a library of nearly 100,000 volumes.

Supervised athletics are encouraged and every attention given the health and welfare of the students.

With a heightened confidence gained by the recent expression of public support, the University is now entering upon an era of large development and extended usefulness.

Christian Church Notes

The C W B M held a very interesting meeting at the Christian church on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Robertson leading. Twelve members of the society at Harrisburg were present. At the close of the discussion of the lesson delightful refreshments were served. The flower decorations were especially beautiful.

C E topic is "Good Work; Finding It; Doing It." Eccl 9: 10, Col 3: 22-25. Leader, Nina Kump.

Brother Phillips will be with us next Sunday morning and evening and regularly from now on.

Methodist Church Notes

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Evils of Intemperance. The drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty. Prov 23: 21.

Once more we have the quarterly temperance lesson. We are reminded of the necessity of being mindful of the encroachment of present day vices.

In the lesson Solomon the wise man warned a young man whom he called "my son" to keep away from three snares which he called drink, food, and an easy time.

In spite of prohibition laws, drunkards who are slaves to drink, try to get or make liquor. Habit forming drugs, nicotine in cigarettes, will make slaves of many young people who are not in danger from drink.

Too much rich food, candy etc eaten in excess is harmful to the body. Perhaps some young people are in danger from the snare of an easy time as much as from any other temptation. Carried to excess it ends in rags. May our young people listen to the wisdom of Frances E. Willard.—"The time to stop a habit is not to start it."

We are counting on a good strong attendance of all our Sunday school members next Sunday morning. Your presence is urgent. The important thing—Be On Time.

We enjoyed the solo by Gertrude Porter at the Sunday evening service. She left Monday morning for Portland to begin her final year in voice culture under Mrs Reed.

The League meeting was led by Lyman Marsters, who put a lot of pep into the meeting and was full of enthusiasm for a live League. Some discussion was started on plans for the coming winter.

Our members who were absent Sunday morning missed a live sermon by the pastor. In the words of several persons present, "Some things that should have been said months ago."

There will be a meeting of the official board, also a meeting of the adjourned session of the quarterly conference next Monday night. All members are urged to be present as this is important for the closing of the year's work. Every one interested in the future of this church is asked to hand in a pledge for next year's support before this meeting.

Protect the Ring Pheasants.

Ring Neck pheasants are scarce in the Willamette valley. What is the cause and wherein lies the remedy? W. L. Finley claims that the scarcity is due to inbreeding etc. With all due respect to Mr Finley we must say he is profoundly mistaken. In this part of the country the pheasants are as prolific as ever.

On my own land this season I have found many nests with from 10 to 16 eggs; the nest 16 eggs in every egg hatched. While cutting grain a few weeks ago I counted 16 birds in one flock, 14 in another, and 10 in a third.

In an orchard near by I saw a hen pheasant with only 4 (small ones) and another with only one. On Saturday the 4th of this month I saw a China hen in the road with at least 12 3 or 4 days old. The scarcity is due to a shortage of stock. Last year should have been a closed season, and unless the game commission makes this year a closed season, almost the complete destruction of the pheasants will result.

Too much shooting in and out of season is the cause of the scarcity. The law is not enforced and only a few try.

Even with a closed season for this year 50 per cent of the pheasants and quail will be killed anyhow. The local sports are shooting them and but of season for the last ten days. Some tourists and deer hunters are shooting from the cars as they drive along the road and unless the farmers kill ahead of the season, to use a slang expression they get left. Make this year at least a close season. T A Powell.
