HIS PARENTS NICK-NAMED HIM
UNEEDA

Because he was always needing a new suit.

He was only 14 but he went thru clothes like 60 and things had gotten to a place where it was either a case of "taking it out of him" or putting it in the clothes.

That was three months ago when Harding was nominated.

This week we met our little friend on First Street wearing the boy's suit we had guaranteed to his Dad.

"How's she wearing?" asked we.

"Like a brick" he answered—They have changed my name to Nabisco."
