The Wells-Helseth Wedding

At the home of W L Wells on Thursday of last week, Gladys, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Wells, was united in marriage to Emil Helseth of Marshfield.

The ceremony, at which C H Phillips, pastor of the Christian church, officiated was performed in the presence of many friends and relatives. It was made beautiful by its simplicity and the tasteful decorations were an added charm.

To the strains of Mendel-sohn's wedding march played by Mrs Phillips, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father and accompanied by Miss Ethel Helseth as maid. She wore a very dainty dress of crepe de chine and a beautiful bridal veil, carrying a bouquet of yellow roses. The groom was attended by Lawrence Wells.

Following the service and the congratulations and good wishes of those present a tastefully prepared lunch of ice cream and cake was served, after which, many snap shots were taken of the group.

The happy couple left that evening for their honeymoon trip, intending to visit in Dallas and elsewhere before making their home in Eugene where they will both complete their course of studies at the Eugene Bible University.

The Enterprise joins the many who will wish for this young couple many years of happy and useful companionship.

Mr and Mrs Geo Laubner and Dr Marks drove to Corvallis Sunday.

Lyle Standish left last Sunday evening for Vancouver, Wash, where he will resume work in a shipyard.

There have been many cases of whooping cough in Halsey and there are some yet, but it is thought they are fairly well under control.

Mr and Mrs O B Stalnaker of Corvallis, spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs Sidney Smith.

Mrs Stafford returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit in Coquille and Bandon.

Miss Merle Straley returned home Sunday from the Seavey hop yards in Corvallis.

H Porter and Roland Marks left Saturday for Corvallis to attend the O A C.

Mr Suyter, who was living in Mrs Gray's house that burned down Sunday night, has leased the L Arndt place for a number of years.

The barn belonging to William Kalpokoff near Peoria burned down last Saturday. It was full of hay and grain and the loss was about $500. It was set on fire by his little boy who was playing with matches.

We understand that Mrs Gray will put up a new house on the place where her house burned down Sunday night. Mr Miner, who has the place leased, will live in a small house that is on the place until the new house is built.

Mr and Mrs Worth Harvey of Cottage Grove, accompanied by friends, visited at the C P Stafford home last Sunday on their return trip from Corvallis. Mrs Harvey was formerly Miss Neva Perkins, who taught school in Halsey one year.

The Boy Scouts held their regular meeting last night. After the regular routine of business was over they engaged in a game called "Bind Man's Bluff" (whatever that is. Who can guess?) Last week they played a game of parlor football.

Mrs A F Robnett moved her household goods to Eugene the latter part of this week. Her husband has been there working for some time, and their daughter De Etta has been there since school commenced. We are sorry to lose this family from Halsey.
