There is a hurricane of cheap clothes pouring down on the men's clothing stores thruout America this month and we want our friends to be ready so that when it hits Albany they won't get soaked.

Good clothes are not cheap, wholesale, but these leaky propositions made of cotton cloth with machine workmanship are in abundance at very attractive prices.

We publish these facts in justice to our customers and to ourselves. Good friends and good clothes are our biggest assets and we mean to protect them both.

Men's overcoats $32.50, $35.00, $37.50, $45.00, $50.00, and $55.00.

Halsey Items

Mr Koontz made a business trip to Portland Monday.
Mrs J S McMahan was an Albany visitor Monday.
Mrs Marcella Kirk was an Albany caller last Friday.
J F Salash had the misfortune to get a piece of steel in one of his eyes last Saturday.
Mrs G G Shirley of McMinnville, transacted business in Halsey this week.
Joe Drinkard and H J Seek of Portland, were Halsey visitors the latter part of last week.
Mr and Mrs Thad Young of Portland, were guests at the J W Drinkard home Sunday.
Mr McGee sr moved to Corvallis Tuesday. His son Sam moved there about two weeks ago.
Mrs Mary Hayes and her daughter, Mrs J C Standish, went to Portland Tuesday for a short visit.
Mr and Mrs Fred Taylor are now living in Corvallis. Mr Taylor is telegraph operator, for the S P co.
Miss Blanche Forster has finished her stenographic course and is now working in the Lane county court house.
Leslie and Ornar Falk are the proud possessors of a new Shetland pony which took grand championship at the state fair.
F H Porter and C R Evans returned Monday with their stock from the Salem fair. Roll Templeton returned Tuesday.
Mr and Mrs R L Winniford of Amity, who recently purchased the W A Templeton place south east of Halsey, have moved onto their place this week.

J C Bramwell has bought the Karl Bramwell property and will move into it some time in the future.
News comes to us that Joe Kirk of Eugene, took to himself a wife last Saturday. We didn't learn the lady's name.
The Woman's Study club held their first meeting for the season this afternoon at the home of Mrs T I Marks.
Mrs Lloyd Robnett of Drain, is visiting a few days this week with her parents, Mr and Mrs J A Stevenson.
I will open up a shoe repair shop in the old Long building, Saturday October 9th. Your patronage solicited. E M Jewett.
Lloyd Gormley and wife and child from Portland, came here the fore part of last week to help Mr Gormley's father with the prunes.
We are the recipients of two fine Chinas from Jas McWilliams and they certainly were delicious. A man who does not himself go hunting certainly appreciates a bird from one who does.
C L Falk jr took five Percheron mares to the state fair and when he returned last Monday he had three blue ribbons and on a 3-year old mare he got the grand champion prize.
Halsey was very much surprised when it heard that the Linn County fair had been called off for this year, right at the last moment. The board of directors did all they could, do even if thousands were disappointed. However the races will be carried on three days this week. See big ad on this page.

For sale or rent, 183 acres between Halsey and Brownsville near a school house; 100 acres in cultivation and 83 in timber and pasture. A good silo and gasoline pumping plant. 12 milk cows, all fresh, 2 brood sows. Sale price $100 per acre, including stock, $7500 down, balance good terms. If rented, cash rent preferred.
G. G. Shirley, owner,
McMinnville, Oregon.

School Notes

Don't forget the Basket Social next Friday evening, October 8, at eight o'clock. It will be at the hall and everybody is invited. Come!
We have several new pupils in High School. They are Alta Hayes, Lewis Skirvin, Lawrence Wells and Clarence McKern.
The Freshman party of last week was quite a success as far as the stunts by the Freshman were concerned. Their treatment was not very hard because they all returned to school Monday.
Tuesday forenoon "Doletta" the smallest mother in the world visited the Halsey school and told the students of her life. We enjoyed her talk very much.
All the High School girls that are interested in music have organized a girls glee club. They have chosen Miss Cook as their leader. They are preparing to give some good entertainments this winter.
The boys are working for a shower to be used before and after games.
Boost your school and help them out.
