in adjourned session last Tuesday evening with a good attendance of Patriarchs present. After taking care of the regular business the meeting adjourned to partake of a very fine feed put up by the refreshment committee consisting of C H Koontz, C E Smith and Karl Bramwell.
The boys are very much enthusied and by next Tuesday evening, Nov 2, they hope to have a number of new applications on file and at the next regular meeting they are planning to have the finest time ever enjoyed by Encampment 32, so if any of the patriarchs approach you with an application, do not hesitate, but sign it at once and be happy with the patriarchs of Encampment 32.

2nd Conference Game to be Played Election Day,
Nov. 2nd.

The Halsey High School football team will meet the Shedd team here on election day.

Great things are expected from the boys this game as several changes have been made in the lineup.

The Shedd has been playing some big games the local boys should give them a good test of their ability. The team has been hindered considerably by the absence of several of the boys from school and by the loss of Harold Muller who has given up football for the season.

Game called at 2 p m. Everyone come and give the boys the much needed support and 25c admission.
