A Parent-Teachers meeting is called for Saturday night for attending to some necessary business. There will also be a short sing in connection with the exercised.

At the last meeting of the city council, Acting Marshal Clark resigned and the council appointed Marshal-elect Bramwell to act in Marshal Rectors place during his absence.

Mr and Mrs Fred Taylor of Corvallis, returned the latter part of last week from California where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr Taylor's mother.

D Taylor, who went to Portland last week to serve on the federal grand jury, returned Friday evening to Halsey but went back to Portland Monday afternoon to finish out his term.

It has been reported that Dr Bridgewater of Albany was dead, but the report is a canard, for, while he is a very sick man in a Portland hospital, he is getting along nicely.

Mr and Mrs Fred Robins and children were over from Halsey Sunday (Oct 31) to visit Mr Robins' parents. Mr Robins has purchased a tractor this year and now has all of his fall crop in.

cows, high testers, and two fresh large Durham cows, heavy milk-ers, three full blooded bronze turkey hens and one gobbler, a full blooded Duroc boar, and some black faced ewes to let out on shares. R B Mayberry.

Will Price of Shedd, fell from a scaffold about 30 feet high last Monday. He broke two of his ribs and bruised his hip quite seriously. Probably all that prevented its being a more serious accident was that his fall was eased by his striking other layers of scaffolding.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held their regular meeting November 3d. After the regular order of business a general good time was enjoyed by all. They will meet again November 17th and are planning on a covered dish supper, so let every member be present.

During the ball game last week between Shedd and Halsey Jess Cross got one of his ribs cracked but he seems to be doing his work all right.

Mr and Mrs T M Bennett and daughter Elinor, with Martin Anderson of Tangent, were visitors at the E C Miller home Sunday. Mrs Opal Higbee and twin boys returned home with them. Mrs Higbee has been visiting relatives here for the last month.

The last meeting of the Wc-man's Study Club was held at the home of Mrs D S McWilliams last Thursday afternoon.
The members responded to roll call with appropriate suggestions for Christmas gifts. Mrs T I Marks and Mrs C E Gulliford discussed first steps in home sewing in a very interesting manner. Miss Donna Robertson and Mrs Stafford furnished the music which was much enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in serving lunch by Mrs B M Bond. The next meeting of the club will be held in the evening at the home of Mrs Stafford; the subject of sewing will be continued.

The Albertsons Surprised.

Last Sunday when Mrs Della Albertson returned from church she found a number of relatives and friends gathered at her home with well filled baskets in honor of her birthday.

After they had partaken of the bountiful dinner the afternoon was spent in singing and pleasant associations. Grandpa Sides read and gave us a profitable talk on the 14th chapter of John and after prayer the friends took their departure.

Those present were as follows:
Mr and Mrs A F Albertson, Mr and Mrs L F Higbee, Mr and Mrs J A Miner and family, Mr and Mrs Wm Zellmers and family, Mr and Mrs O J Albertson and family, Mr and Mrs C Pettibone and family, Mr and Mrs Vere Higbee and family, Mr and Mrs E Black and family of Oakville, Grandpa Sides and the Hetzel brothers.

The Odd Fellows' Fete.

At the Odd Fellows' get-together meeting last Saturday night, veteran jewels were presented to W W Francis, W G Morgan, J W Morgan, W J Ribelin, D I Isom, E A Morgan, B M Miller, F M Gray, R C Farwell, Geo Laubner, C C Jackson, and D Taylor.

The jewels were presented on the basis of the length of time the members had been in good standing from 25 years and over.

W W Francis received a 40-year jewel, the highest of any, and he being the only charter member of the lodge living.
George Laubner and B M Miller each received 30-year jewels as representing the youngest members who had served thirty years or more. Some others who were older in years but younger in membership got 25-year jewels.

Robt Andrews of Portland, delivered the opening address, which was followed by spiels by each of the members who were recipients of jewels.

Rev Cook and Elder Phillips each made short addresses.

After all this feast of the minds they proceeded to feast their bodies from the banquet prepared by the Odd Fellows and their families and the Rebekahs.

There were 100 sat down to the first table, and nearly as many at the last. The feast was so fine that some of the members talked about it for nearly a week afterwards.
