HALSEY NEWS NOTES

ALSO ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM EVERYWHERE

Mrs McClelland, who had been visiting for a long time with her parents, F M Gray and wife, left last Friday for her home in San Francisco. She was accompanied by her nephew, Claron Gormley, who will probably put in the winter in California.

Mrs M M Ward arrived Sunday evening for three or four days visit with her friends and transacting business. She reported that two weeks ago she went to Eugene and took dinner with her twin daughters, Mrs Ross of Eugene, and Mrs Saylor of Portland. There were present besides the above, Mrs David Froman and Margaret Ward of Albany, E G Ward of Corvallis, Harold Ross of Portland, and Mrs J A Miller of Eugene.

We are here to serve you. The best of pork, beef, and fish the country affords. We keep a line of lard and compound always on hand. See us before you buy. The Halsey Meat Market, Carter & Son.

R A Bilyeu was an Albany caller Monday.

Earl Carey left Saturday for Roseburg where he will visit two or three weeks with his sister, Mrs Myrtle Davis.

Mrs Mellie Knott from Salem, arrived here some time ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs J C Bramwell. To give him more room Mr Bramwell is building an additional room on the south side of his house.

Last Monday when Glenn Chance was bringing Mrs G W Shaw in from Bryan Perry's in an auto, when they got to the cross roads and as they were turning the corner they collided with a buggy that was going west. In order to avoid more serious damage he ran the auto into the ditch where he had to wait until Crete Hayes came with his auto to help him out. The buggy was struck and damaged to some extent and had to be brought to the blacksmith shop for repairs. Fortunately no one was hurt. The boys in the buggy were Holt and Lyle Grimes who attend the school at this place.

Jess Saffley, who had been in Albany for quite a while taking care of his mother, reported that she died Sunday night of cancer of the stomach.

Mr Kessell of Harriburg, who has opened up the city hall as the Rialto Theatre for Thursday night, gave his first show last Thursday night in the "Dice of Destiny" which was a good play from beginning to end. He began and will begin promptly at 7.30, but he gave the show twice, so that any who came in late could remain to see the second show. He had a fairly good house and it was the general thought that he would do well with it. He shows tonight the "Devil's Pass Key" and next Thursday night the play will be "Burning Daylight."

$500 Reward

Lost, strayed, or stolen! A man about the size of a woman, bare-footed, with a pair of wooden shoes on, pink eyes, and sunset hair, the former cut curly and the latter cut darker. He wore a corn beef overcoat with a sourkrout lining, and had an empty sack on his back containing a barrel of skylight and a dozen assorted railroad tunnels. When last seen he was following a crowd towards the city hall of Halsey to witness the H H S Play.
